Friedrichshafen Gives Wild Welcome to Voyagers of Air After New Record Journey.

Friedrichshafen, November 1.—(P)—The Graf Zeppelin landed at 7:06 a. m. today mid-European time (1:06 a. m. E. S. T.).

At 7:16 a. m. after having come to rest on the ground, the airship was being towed into her hangar.

The Graf Zeppelin arrived over her home port at 4:50 a. m. mid-European time (10:50 p. m. eastern standard time), just 68 hours and 56 minutes from the start of her flight.

She had completed the first round-trip commercial air crossing over the Atlantic. The distance from Lakehurst, N. J., which she left at 1:54 a. m., eastern standard time, on Monday, was estimated at 4,003 miles.

This was little more than half the time she required on her eastward flight, when she flew 6,000 miles by the Azores route.

Sets New Record.

The Graf Zeppelin established a new record for eastward flight by a dirigible across the Atlantic. The British dirigible R-34, in 1919, made the only previous eastward flight, from Roosevelt field to England, in 75 hours.

With the approach of the dirigible the population of the town, swelled many times its normal size, was aroused by volleys of saluting shots. The people rushed pell mell to the airfield where the crews of the Zeppelin were already assembled at the hangar.

The airship, however, did not go directly to the field, but cruised about over the town. It was raining, but.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF LOS ANGELES INDICTED BY JURY

Los Angeles, October 31.—(P)—District Attorney Ass. Keyes was accused of "wilful and corrupt misconduct in office" in an indictment returned tonight by the Los Angeles county grand jury.

With the indictment the grand jury filed an "accusation" for the removal of Keyes from office. The charge of wilful and corrupt misconduct in office was repeated in the accusation filed with Superior Judge Douglas L. Edwards.

Immediately upon receipt of the accusation, Judge Edwards announced he had appointed John W. Hart, chairman of the grand jury committee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, as a special prosecutor.

The indictment charged Keyes with conspiring with E. H. Rosenberg, Jack Rosenberg and Jacob Berman, alias Jack Bennett, to effect their acquittal in the recent Julian Petroleum corporation stock overissue trials.

"Vote Straight Ticket," Gov. Hardman Urges

GOVERNOR L. G. HARDMAN.

Democrats of Georgia are urged by Governor L. G. Hardman to go to the polls Tuesday and "vote the straight democratic ticket and thus demonstrate to the world that Georgians are true to the political ideals of their fathers," in a statement issued Thursday afternoon by the governor.

Governor Hardman points out that "developments of the national campaign show a strong trend everywhere toward the democratic ticket."

He points out that both Georgia's senators, all twelve congressmen and all state house officers "are standing steadfastly by the party."

The governor said he had been a life-long democrat and had declared a renewal of his allegiance to the party immediately after the Houston convention and at various times since the convention. He declared that he had never had any doubt that the people of the south would remain true to democracy.

The statement of the governor is as follows:

"The developments of the national campaign are very gratifying, and show a strong trend everywhere toward the democratic ticket. As the present campaign has progressed, it has become increasingly evident that the only hope for legislation of a progressive nature in the interest of the people as a whole lies with the democratic party."

"I have been a life-long democrat and declared my renewed allegiance to the party immediately after the Houston convention and at various times since the convention. He declared that he had never had any doubt that the people of the south would remain true to democracy."

"It is a gratifying feature of this campaign that both of Georgia's distinguished senators and all twelve of her congressmen, together with the state house officers elected by the people, and other democratic officials in all sections of the state are standing steadfastly by the party and its nominees, and with them I want to urge the voters of the state to go to the polls and vote the straight democratic ticket, and thus demonstrate to the world that Georgians are true to the political ideals of their fathers."

RASKOB PRESENTS PROOF THAT G. O. P. BACKS BIGOT PLEA

Chairman Shows Republican Committee Authorized Anti-Catholic Attacks in Letter to Work.

New York, October 31.—(P)—John J. Raskob, democratic national chairman, today made public a letter he had sent to Dr. Hubert Work, republican national chairman, enclosing documents which he said showed direct connection between republican campaign officials and the distribution of pamphlets attacking Governor Smith on the grounds of his religion.

A copy of the letter was also to Herbert Hoover, Mr. Raskob said.

"Many of those associated with the republican party and the republican national committee," the letter said, "have been engaged in the despicable practice of inciting religious bigotry in our country through promoting the preparation and circulation of scurrilous and scandalous literature and false and misleading statements about the Catholic religion, because it happens to be . . . the faith of Alfred E. Smith."

"Throughout the campaign, I, as chairman of the democratic national committee, have endeavored to conduct a fair fight, attacking your organization, party and candidates on issues and avoiding scurrilous personal attacks."

The letter was accompanied by enclosures which included a photostatic copy of a letter described as having been written on October 12 by Senator George K. Moses, of New Hampshire, chairman of the republican advisory committee, and addressed to Zeb Vance Walser, at Lexington, Kentucky.

Senator Moses' letter mentioned that it enclosed an "article for newspaper publication written by a native of South Carolina." The letter described the article as "red hot stuff," and Senator Moses wrote that he hoped Walser could "get it put into some Georgia newspaper."

"I call upon you to produce a copy of the enclosure," Mr. Raskob wrote. "Will you deny that this enclosure is one of the most vicious anti-Catholic articles that ever has been penned for publication?"

Other enclosures in the letter to Dr. Work were photostatic copies of what were described as affidavits from Bernice Smalley, of Wichita, Kan.; R. M. Williams, Jr., of Oxford, Miss.; J. E. Woodward, of Meridian, Miss.; and H. G. Winningham, of Corbin, Kentucky.

These documents stated that the makers had received through the mails campaign pamphlets bearing the names of republican officials in envelopes which also contained anti-Catholic and anti-Tammany articles clearing labels indicating they were reprinted from the Fellowship Forum, a publication of which Mr. Raskob said, "its sole purpose seems to be to attack Catholic religion and Governor Smith."

"The Fellowship Forum," Mr. Raskob wrote, "on October 6 in accordance with legal requirements, published among its own members the names of R. H. Angell, of Roanoke, Va., republican state chairman of Virginia, and also William G. Conley, Charleston, W. Va., who is republican nominee for governor of West Virginia."

Mr. Raskob's letter to Dr. Work, and the copy for Mr. Hoover, went to Washington tonight, he said, by special messenger. The originals of the documents enclosed in both letters remain in Mr. Raskob's possession.

Mr. Raskob said he had no knowledge of Zeb Vance Walser was, but that the letter apparently had been sent by mistake to Lexington, Ky., when it should have been addressed to Lexington, N. C.

Warden Says That All Information in Regard to Erstwhile Prisoner Must Come From Washington.

Warden John W. Snook, of the Atlanta federal prison, Wednesday declined to furnish The Constitution with the records in the case of "Peter Hanson," who is alleged to have been William Larsen, department of justice agent sent to the prison under the guise of a convict on direction of Mrs. Mable Walker Wilbrandt, assistant attorney general. His refusal followed a telegram sent to Attorney General Sargent by Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, requesting that official to make all records public.

Mr. Snook held that he was without authority to let any one inspect official papers in the case and declared that all information must come from the attorney general's office in Washington. He declined to comment upon the story that an undercover man had been planted at the prison and the charge that "Peter Hanson" was really Larsen.

"I have no comment to make and if any records are released they must be released from Washington," he said.

Efforts to locate Thomas C. Wilcox and C. C. Speer, agents in charge of the special investigation at the prison now being carried on by the department of justice under direction of Mrs. Wilbrandt, were futile Wednesday.

Boykin Prepares To Fight Insanity Pleas for Youths

THREE CHILDREN DIE; POLICE HOLD MOTHER AND MAN

Head of Detective Force Says That Plea of Insanity Has Been Expected From the First.

All the forces of the solicitor-general's office were called into action Wednesday to prepare a fight on probable insanity pleas for George Harsh and "Dick" Gallogly, alleged collegiate thrill-slayers.

Sensing early that a mental plea would be made for Gallogly, the state included the probable Harsh defense in its plans after Dr. Frank Eskridge, noted Atlanta alienist, had visited the confessed slayer of S. H. Meeks, A&P grocery clerk, and Willard Smith, drug store manager, in his cell in the Fulton county tower.

The visit of Dr. Eskridge was made Tuesday afternoon but notice of it was withheld until Wednesday. Two members of Harsh's counsel are said to have accompanied the physician to the tower and aided him in the examination which resulted in the arrest of Harsh and Gallogly. Harsh has appeared of normal mentality at all times.

Harsh is one of the surest thinkers I have ever seen," Detective Lowe said. "He has a remarkable memory for details and at no time during my investigation did he lead me to believe that he was anything but of normal mind."

Harsh willingly gave the police the details of his confessed crimes, Chief Poole said, adding that the prime suspect in the slaying of the two boys was Harsh and that no doubt exists that Harsh was sane.

"We expected such pleas all along," Chief Poole said. "In fact in the face of it one would wonder how it drove these two boys to these crimes if they were not insane. The only other answer can be that they are criminals."

Solicitor-General John A. Boykin followed defense counsel Wednesday in closing down on information. The solicitor-general would barely talk on the case and said that there would be nothing more for publication until the youths were placed on trial. The tentative trial date has been set for November 13, but sources close to defense counsel indicated Wednesday that delays undoubtedly would be asked because of the short time given to defense lawyers to prepare for such a giant task as the one which confronts them.

They have an excellent case as it stands but we're going to keep on digging until we get every available bit of information."

Nominee Takes Lincoln's Famous Epigram on 'Fooling People' as Text for Speech.

TORCHES BRIGHTEN 12-MILE PARADE

Charges Republican Committee With False Circulars Put in Workers' Pay Envelopes.

BY WALTER CHAMBLIN.
Associated Press Staff Writer.

Newark, N. J., October 31.—(P)—Welcomed to New Jersey by a torch light parade, Governor Alfred E. Smith, tonight, in the same hall where his rival for the presidency spoke earlier in the campaign, accused the republican party of attempting to fool the American people on farm relief, labor, tariff, prohibition and a number of other issues.

On crossing the Hudson river from his home state of New York, the democratic nominee passed over more than 12 miles of highways in Jersey City and Newark between lines of people who illuminated his pathway with red and white flames.

The governor was welcomed to the 113th regimental armory of the New Jersey national guard with shouts, cheering, the tossing of papers and the shrieks of horns.

He took as his text Lincoln's famous quotation: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, all of the people some of the time, but you cannot fool all of the people all of the time."

Two More Speeches.

The governor's speech was the last he will deliver outside of New York between now and the end of the campaign. He has two more speeches scheduled, but both of these will be made in home territory, one in Brooklyn Friday night and the other in Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

At 8:40 p. m. while a speaker was in the middle of an attack on republican activities in the state, a roar was heard from the outside announcing the approach of Governor Smith. Inside, the crowd was up on its feet shouting. It was several minutes later before the nominee appeared on the platform. He had been escorted into the hall under a heavy police guard through a secret entrance.

Meanwhile the audience had been warming up for his appearance. Those with noise makers began lumbering to their contraptions and others their lungs.

Inspects Broom.

By the time the nominee reached the platform, the noise making was working to perfection. The din seemed to grow as the governor stepped on the platform. He looked it over and waved it to the crowd.

In the midst of all the hubbub, the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

ATLANTA TRADE GAIN LEADS IN SOUTHEAST

Percentage Increase 14.8
Per Cent Registered; Nashville Nearest Rival.

Atlanta's retail trade, the barometer of general business conditions, showed a greater proportionate increase in volume than in any other southeastern city for the first nine months of the current year, it was revealed by figures in the Monthly Review of the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank, issued Wednesday.

The Gate City's percentage gain was 14.8 per cent, as opposed to an advance of 7.7 per cent by Nashville, Tenn., its nearest rival.

Atlanta also was in the vanguard with respect to the size of stocks and the stock turnover for the area, the review showed. The gain in stocks over the corresponding period last year was 17.1 per cent with New Orleans next with a 15 per cent gain.

In the stock turnover, Atlanta again was first with a ratio of 2.40, while Nashville took second place with 2.15.

On a comparison of September sales alone for this year and the last it was revealed that Nashville led with a net gain of 12 per cent over its total for September, 1927. Atlanta was second for the single month with a percentage gain of 8.8.

The federal reserve report said the cotton crop in the sixth district, not including those parts of Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana situated in other districts is estimated at 10 per cent smaller than that of last year, but the Florida citrus crop will show an increase over 1927 of 4.4 million boxes, and sugar production in Louisiana, the report continued, will surpass last year's yield by a figure 2 1/2 times greater.

Loans, Discounts Decrease
Weekly reports received from 31 member banks located in Atlanta, New Orleans, Birmingham, Jacksonville, Nashville, Chattanooga, Knoxville and Savannah, the report said, "indicate that between September 12 and October 10, total loans and discounts by these banks decreased $2,276,000. Loans on securities declined about three millions, but there was a slight increase in 'all other loans.'

"Building permits in September at twenty reporting cities increased over August, but were nearly 23 per cent less than in September last year, and contract awards in the district declined in comparison with both of those periods.

WOMAN FATALLY BURNED BY OIL STOVE EXPLOSION

Marietta, Ga., October 31.—Miss Martha R. Sutton, 65 years old, was burned to death by the explosion of an oil stove at the home of Mrs. Walker McKenny, on Cherokee avenue, where Miss Sutton made her home, late Tuesday afternoon.

Firemen who went to the scene reported that Miss Sutton was in the act of lighting the heater on a floor that was saturated with oil from a leak in the heater tank, and the flames ignited her clothing. Walter McKenny, Jr., a Boy Scout, was the first to reach her and succeeded in extinguishing the flames by wrapping her in a cloak, but she was so badly burned that she died before the arrival of an ambulance.

Miss Sutton was a member of the Episcopal church. Funeral plans were to be made Wednesday. She is survived by one brother and three sisters, T. N. Sutton of Jackson, Miss.; Mrs. H. P. Cook, Mrs. I. M. Miller and Mrs. G. C. Berry, all of Atlanta, and Mrs. W. E. Dunham, of Cochran, Ga.

PROHIBITIONISTS URGED TO VOTE FOR AL SMITH

Democrats Pledged To Uphold Law, Mrs. H. M. Franklin Says.

Declaring that the democratic party is pledged by its platform to a rigid enforcement of the national prohibition laws, Mrs. H. M. Franklin, of Tennille, issued a statement Wednesday calling on prohibitionists to support the national Smith-Robinson ticket.

Mrs. Franklin reviewed other reasons why she believes the people of the south should stand by the democratic party, the "party of the south." She discusses "the religious issue" and makes a strong plea for tolerance.

Mrs. Franklin has served as state president of the Daughters of the Confederacy and as state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is a member of the state advisory board of the woman's division of the state democratic campaign committee.

Statement in Part.

The statement of Mrs. Franklin, in part, follows:
That good old hymn which we Methodists sing, "Faith of Our Fathers Living Still," might well apply to the democratic party. For sixty-three years this party has been the strength and salvation of the south in her struggle for white supremacy; in her struggle to rebuild after the horrors of that "strife of brothers." During a recent visit to a Confederate assembly, how the eyes of the old soldiers brightened, how they cheered when the lecturer told of the loyalty of the democratic party which was their only hope in the dark days of reconstruction.

"Many of us who have been brought up as prohibitionists, as well as democrats, agree with Senator George, who says: 'If one's political creed begins and ends with prohibition, his logical place is in the prohibition party.' Many of us see no difference between Smith and Hoover on the prohibition question, except that Smith declared the eighteenth amendment as it stands inefficient. The democratic nominee and the democratic party are pledged to rigid enforcement of the law.

President No Emperor.

"Mark Twain said: 'True irreverence is disrespect for another man's God.' Those who fear a Catholic in the white house should be reminded that the president is not an emperor, and the pope would have no more control in America than the Protestant denominations to which our presidents have belonged, held control. The Protestants have a safe majority in the supreme court, in the senate, in the numbers only five Catholics among its ninety-six members, and in the house, which numbers only thirty-nine Catholics among its 435 members. Protestantism is safely entrenched, but if all Protestants were intolerant, Mr. Smith would not four times have been elected governor of New York, for that state is preponderantly Protestant. The institutions of my church to interfere with the operations of the constitution of the United States or the enforcement of the law of the land."

"As a delegate to the democratic national convention, at first there was disappointment, but since we have learned more of the democratic nominee for president we find that he has what Woodrow Wilson called the eight horses that draw the triumphal chariot of every ruler and leader of free men: 1. Force of character; 2. Readiness of resources; 3. Clearness of vision; 4. Grasp of intellect; 5. Courage of conviction; 6. Earnestness of purpose; 7. Instinct; and 8. Capacity for leadership.

"Let us rally to our party, and go to the polls as democrats who are loyal! Enemies of the south have not given up hopes of reducing our representation in congress because of our disfranchisement of the negro, and a small vote in the presidential election would cause them to renew their efforts. No matter how ardent a democrat you say you are, to stay away from the polls gives a vote to the other side.

"Let us be true to the faith of our fathers, living still, and stand by southern principles of democracy, a loyal solid south!"

SIX BOUND OVER AS RESULT OF RAID ON GEORGIA STILLS

Cheney Jones and Claude Roberts were bound over to the Rome court by United States Commissioner Griffith Wednesday under $300 bond each on charges of violating prohibition laws following a raid on several stills in Paulding county under the direction of United States Marshal L. H. Crawford.

According to the reports of the officers, Jones was apprehended while in rapid flight along the highway after a strenuous chase. He claimed to be headed for "home," but beer stains on his clothes and his proximity to a still which was found in operation led the raiders to believe that he had been connected with its operation.

Roberts told the court that he had just happened along, saw a small fire under the still and proceeded to build it up and start making "a little whiskey."

Charles H. Smoke was bound over under $1,000 bond following the discovery of a still on or near his property in Spalding county by prohibition officers in connection with county officers, Arthur Sheffield, who is said to live on Smoke's property, was found in possession of whisky, according to the reports, and bound over under $500 bond, while Harvey and Robert Green, likewise said to be Smoke's tenants, were bound over under $200 bonds each.

A radio concert will precede the speaking and will commence at 7:30. Mr. Bell has represented the ninth district in congress for the past 24 years and he will no doubt be able to tell the voters in this section of the republic that has been going on in the republican ranks for the past few years. He will give special attention to the Dyer anti-lynch bill, which the author has been trying so hard to get through congress and which has been fought by the southern democrats with such vigor that it failed. Congressman Bell has many friends and supporters throughout this section and a large crowd is expected to be present at the rally to hear his speech.

'BAPTIST HONOR DAY' SUCCESS PREDICTED

Dr. Truett and Dr. Cree Make Addresses to Laymen and Ministers.

Faith that southern Baptists would respond November 11 to an appeal to replace funds of the Baptist home mission board, alleged to have been embezzled by Clinton S. Carnes, was expressed here Wednesday by Dr. George W. Truett, president of the Southern Baptist convention.

Speaking to more than 700 Georgia Baptist lay leaders and ministers at the Baptist tabernacle in one of a series of meetings being held throughout the south, Dr. Truett urged support of all members of the denomination in making "Baptist Honor day" on November 11 a success.

Emergency Tests Men.

"An emergency always tests and reveals men," said the convention president, who is pastor of First Baptist church, Dallas, Texas. "Southern Baptists apparently are going to meet this greatest emergency in a spirit of courage, of faith in God, and a spirit without cynicism."

Dr. Arch C. Cree, acting executive secretary of the board, in an address to the gathering, told how Carnes, the board's former treasurer, is alleged to have embezzled $953,000, the amount which he said would be sought from Baptist churches of the south.

Baptist leaders from all sections of the state were here for the meeting. They heard Dr. Cree outline Carnes' record. The speaker said Carnes was employed as treasurer after he had audited the board's books, as an employee of an Atlanta firm of auditors.

"He was a master bookkeeper—while fact he has so adroitly demonstrated," Dr. Cree said.

Carnes' Record Reviewed.

Carnes' prison terms, one in Missouri and one in Atlanta federal penitentiary, where he was sent from Birmingham, received little publicity, Dr. Cree said. "Even neighbors in Birmingham did not know he had been tried and convicted."

"After serving his term in federal prison Carnes came back to Atlanta and asked for his old job with the auditing firm. He was reemployed."

It was then, he said, that Carnes first came in contact with the board. "One of the greatest bonding companies in the country investigated Carnes and unhesitatingly bonded him. I am firmly convinced that any 18 men placed in the same position as the members of the home mission board and facing similar conditions would have done the same thing."

After an address at Baptist tabernacle here Wednesday night Dr. Cree and Dr. Truett were to go to Birmingham, where a conference of Alabama Baptist leaders is scheduled for today.

They came here following a conference in Columbia, S. C., Tuesday. They go to Jackson, Miss., November 2, and end the swing at Shreveport, November 3 and 4.

Zoning Amendment Is Urged by Torras, Planning Engineer

In a strong plea for the proposed constitutional amendment making city zoning ordinances legal, R. W. Torras, engineer for the city planning commission, Wednesday declared that such ordinances are an actual necessity if this state is to experience the healthy urban growth enjoyed by other commonwealths.

In Tuesday's voting the citizens of the state will be afforded the opportunity to pass on the amendment, and Mr. Torras strongly urged that voters give their support to the proposal, as Mayor I. N. Ragsdale and other officials have indicated they will do.

The overwhelming popularity of zoning and planning measures in United States metropolitan and urban centers was shown by figures submitted by Mr. Torras. Of 287 cities of more than 25,000 population, 208 have zoning ordinances and of 68 cities of more than 100,000 population 55 have such ordinances.

Atlanta and Savannah already have passed ordinances of the type in question, but these have been restrained from being placed in operation by the prohibitive clauses of the state constitution. The proposed amendment is designed to remedy this matter.

STEELE DELIVERS PARTY ADDRESS TO PUTNAM VOTERS

Eatonton, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—Congressman Leslie J. Steele, of the fifth district, addressed the voters of Putnam at the courthouse here today. A large crowd of men and women were present. The speaker was introduced by Solicitor Joseph B. Duke. Mr. Steele's speech was clear and convincing. There were only a few Hooverites present, for Putnam is strongly democratic.

Emergency Tests Men.

"An emergency always tests and reveals men," said the convention president, who is pastor of First Baptist church, Dallas, Texas. "Southern Baptists apparently are going to meet this greatest emergency in a spirit of courage, of faith in God, and a spirit without cynicism."

Dr. Arch C. Cree, acting executive secretary of the board, in an address to the gathering, told how Carnes, the board's former treasurer, is alleged to have embezzled $953,000, the amount which he said would be sought from Baptist churches of the south.

Baptist leaders from all sections of the state were here for the meeting. They heard Dr. Cree outline Carnes' record. The speaker said Carnes was employed as treasurer after he had audited the board's books, as an employee of an Atlanta firm of auditors.

"He was a master bookkeeper—while fact he has so adroitly demonstrated," Dr. Cree said.

Carnes' Record Reviewed.

Carnes' prison terms, one in Missouri and one in Atlanta federal penitentiary, where he was sent from Birmingham, received little publicity, Dr. Cree said. "Even neighbors in Birmingham did not know he had been tried and convicted."

"After serving his term in federal prison Carnes came back to Atlanta

We like to think of this Reo in terms of craftsmanship

Reo has never overdeveloped one feature at the expense of others.

There's a craftsman's instinct behind it that looks to balance of design—that insists that an obvious superiority never quite makes up for an obvious weakness . . . .

And yet you can match the Reo Flying Cloud for speed against practically any car on the road—for smooth, velvety riding

—for flexibility and easy handling—for quick starting and quicker stopping—for its ability to hug a dirt road no matter how fast a clip you take it at—and its ability to put a good stiff hill behind you without any strain.

The tradition of that fine old clipper ship of the 50's—the Flying Cloud—comes down to us as the supreme example of American craftsmanship. We like to think it is the same instinct for craftsmanship which makes possible the Reo Flying Cloud.

Bigamy Charged
To Cornelia Man
After Six Years

Cornelia, Ga., October 31.—After having been married to his second wife for six years, Arthur Cunningham, employee of a large apple orchard near here, was tried on a charge of bigamy Tuesday before Magistrate Ernest J. Kimsey, and was bound over to superior court under $300 bail when it developed at the hearing that Cunningham had never been granted a divorce from his first wife nor had he made a diligent search to learn her whereabouts or if she were still living.

In his statement to the court, Cunningham said he had instituted divorce proceedings against his first wife and had made "first payment" on the divorce, but heard that his wife was dead and dropped the proceedings. He said he had not seen nor had any word from his first wife in ten years, although it was testified by her brother that the woman had lived in this vicinity up until four years ago.

Phil Wade, local orchardist and a witness for the state, testified that he had investigated the divorce proceedings filed by Cunningham in the Banks county court, and found that the divorce had never been granted. Jim Vinson, brother of Cunningham's first wife, testified that his sister was not dead three years ago, but that he had not heard from her since that time.

He said she was ill at the time of her last message and that it was a request for a railroad ticket on which to come home. The ticket was not sent, he said.

Sam Vinson, also a brother of the

AT MILLEDGEVILLE

Milledgeville, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—A large crowd of Baldwin county citizens crowded the county courthouse here Wednesday night to hear Malcolm R. McAdoo, brother of the former secretary of the treasury, deliver an address in behalf of the candidacy of Herbert Hoover.

Mr. McAdoo, who denounced the New York governor as having been elected to his present office by the "large foreign element of New York city," characterized the democratic standard bearer as a "professional politician."

missing woman, testifying for the defense, said that Cunningham and the Vinson woman were married about 12 years ago but had lived together only about a year. He said he had not seen his sister in eight to ten years and had supposed her to be dead.

He knew of the divorce proceedings instituted against his sister, but did not know if the decree had ever been granted, he said. The case was prosecuted by E. C. York, Cunningham's second wife was Gladys York.

LAXATIVE FOR BABY
THAT "STAYS DOWN"

Baby's tiny system rebels against castor oil and strong purgatives; but here's a medicine that just suits him. And it does the work quickly and so gently that Baby doesn't feel it. Fletcher's Castoria is soothing, cross-fretful babies and children to sleep and making the feverish, constipated, upset ones well and happy, in millions of homes today. Castoria is purely-vegetable, harmless and endorsed by the medical profession. Avoid imitations. The Chas. H. Fletcher signature marks genuine Castoria.—(adv.)

Seats will be placed on sale for the four performances this morning at the Erlanger box office and at Phillips & Crew Piano company. There already has been a heavy demand by mail, both from Atlantans and from other cities in the state, according to Manager Lewis Haase, of the Erlanger.

Living Victims of 'Thrill' Seekers' Bullets

In addition to death to two men and the wounding of a third, the end of the search of George R. Harsh and "Dick" Gallogly, wealthy students, left a trail of sorrow and blank despair. Above, at top, are the latest photographs of Mrs. Mary Belle Smith, widow of Willard A. Smith, slain druggist, taken for The Constitution at Chattanooga, where she is staying; below is a family group of I. V. Ellis, wounded store manager, showing, on the front row, Mrs. Ellis, Mr. Ellis, and little Florine, 4, on her father's lap. The two boys are shown at the top, Forrest, 7, at the left, and Velvin, 9, at the right.

The automatic that George R. Harsh, collegiate "thrill" slayer, used so expertly on roadway reflector signs, street lights and Oglethorpe university campus targets, brought death and sorrow to two families and almost disaster to a third.

When the rich, young student pressed its trigger in his search for what he has termed a new diversion, death resulted for two men—Willard A. Smith and S. H. Meeks—and incapacitating injuries to a third, I. V.

Ellis, grocery store manager. Its sharp bark, in addition, brought heartache and sorrow to seven other persons—the families of the men shot down.

Mrs. Mary Belle Smith, 19, wife of less than a year, lost her husband and his support; the mother and father of Meeks lost a favorite son; the family of I. V. Ellis temporarily have lost the services of its husband and father.

Perhaps the most pathetic aftermath of the "thrill" slaying is the case of young Mrs. Smith, pictured above in the two latest photographs to be printed. The bullet from Harsh's gun not only ended the life of the only close relative she had ever had since she was a baby but also left her without means of support. The Smiths, who were married last December 15, were a devoted couple and both worked hard to provide for the future.

Mrs. Smith aided her husband in making a living by working at a local theater for a modest salary. She is now staying at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Victor Williams, of Chattanooga.

This aunt has filed in Fulton superior court suit in behalf of the young widow, asking damages of $100,000 from Harsh and his alleged companion, Richard Gray Gallogly.

Mr. Ellis, shown in the group photograph below with his wife and three small children, likewise has filed suit, seeking $50,000 damages for wounds received at the hands of the alleged "thrill" slayers.

Mrs. Smith, still in a highly nervous condition at her aunt's home, Wednesday was reported to be bearing up bravely. She was too broken up over the tragedy that snuffed out her husband's life to evince interest in the civil action taken by her aunt, as next friend. She declared that all she desires now is justice, and expressed the hope that the result of the coming trial of the two wealthy college youths will be a lesson to others "seeking a thrill."

Little Rock, Ark., October 31.—(AP) Unless he develops a temperature before noon tomorrow, Charles Smith, president of the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism, will find his voluntary imprisonment and "hunger strike" as a protest against anti-atheism laws in Arkansas ended through no fault of his.

The remainder of his $25 fine on a charge of distributing literature "calculated to provoke a breach of the peace" was paid late this afternoon by an unidentified man who refused to give his name to police.

When notified his fine had been paid, Smith, who is in a hospital because of his weakened condition brought on by 14 days of fasting, grew indignant, saying it was done without his authority and he would not leave the hospital until his fine had been served out unless he was ejected. The attending physician at the hospital said Smith would be examined tomorrow morning and if he was in a normal condition would be released.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus hearing, filed a few days ago by Smith's attorney and scheduled to be heard Friday, will be disregarded, Circuit Judge Abner McGehee said.

Smith was arrested here shortly after he had opened atheist headquarters to combat passage of a proposed act to prohibit teaching of the theory of evolution in tax supported schools which will be voted on in the general election.

Fined $25 and costs on a charge of distributing literature "calculated to provoke a breach of the peace," he elected to serve the fine out in jail as a protest against Arkansas laws denying an atheist the right to testify in courts and on the second day of his voluntary imprisonment, he began a "hunger strike" as a further protest against the anti-atheism laws.

SAVANNAH HONORS
FOUNDER OF GIRL SCOUT MOVEMENT

Savannah, Ga., October 31.—(AP) The memory of Mrs. Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement, was honored here in her home city today, when hundreds of Girl Scouts and their councilors, as well as former friends of Mrs. Low, gathered to attend the unveiling of a bronze memorial plaque, the gift of the national council of Girl Scouts.

Present on the anniversary of Mrs. Low's birthday, the plaque was unveiled by Mrs. E. S. Elliott, of Savannah, the oldest Girl Scout captain, in point of service, in the country. The memorial was one of three similar plaques provided by the national council of Girl Scouts, though it was the first to be unveiled. The other two are to be placed in the Girl Scout little house, Washington, D. C., and in national headquarters.

Two national officials of the organization attended the presentation. They were Mrs. Lee Ashcraft, of Atlanta, who presented the plaque in behalf of the national council, and Miss Dorris Hough, secretary of the national Juliette Low memorial fund. The plaque was received by Mrs. Nanna Pape, Savannah Girl Scout commissioner. Mrs. Low's vision and inspiration in connection with the Girl Scout movement was discussed by Mrs. T. P. Waring.

Tate was stricken with a hemorrhage and died despite an hour's attempt by Ruth to revive him. Ruth was on his way to Denver.

FINAL SPEAKING DATES IN STATE ANNOUNCED

Plea for Additional Campaign Contributions Made by Committee.

Announcement of speaking dates for speakers in Georgia who appear in behalf of the national ticket for the last three days of the week and a plea for additional campaign contributions were made public Wednesday by the state democratic campaign committee. United States Senator Cole Blease, of South Carolina, has accepted an invitation to deliver a campaign address at Athens Saturday night. He will speak in the Colonial theater in that city.

Solicitor-General E. M. Owens, of Griffin judicial circuit who has been doing effective campaign work, has accepted invitations for speeches that will keep him actively engaged throughout the remainder of the campaign, as follows:

Thursday night at Gay, Meriwether county.

Friday night at Miller, Lamar county.

Saturday afternoon, 1:30 o'clock at Thomaston in Upson county.

Solicitor Owens states that the outlook for democratic success in all of the counties in the Griffin judicial circuit is very promising, and that in his opinion Smith will sweep all of them by increased plurality in the election next Tuesday.

A final appeal for funds for the state democratic campaign was issued Wednesday as follows:

"Additional funds are needed to meet the legitimate expenses of the democratic presidential campaign in Georgia.

"The call that went out several weeks ago for contributions met with an encouraging response, from certain sections in the state, particularly in Atlanta, but these have been expended most advantageously in the organization work that has been carried on all over Georgia.

"As the campaign enters its last week, the need for additional money is imperative, not alone to meet obligations that were necessary in advancing the organization work, but to liquidate the mounting current and pressing expenses incident to the drive.

"It is requested that contributions large or small be forwarded to Honorable Cam Dorsey, treasurer of the state democratic executive committee, with offices in the Healy building, Atlanta. All checks should, of course, be made payable to Mr. Dorsey as treasurer.

The speakers' bureau of the Georgia democratic campaign Wednesday announced the following speaking dates for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week:

Thursday, Elberton, Mrs. Frank Dennis, 8 p. m.; Kite, Judge Earl Camp, Clayton, Honorable Tom Shackleford, at 11 a. m.; Helen, Honorable Tom Shackleford, at 7:30 p. m.; Cusseta, Congressman W. C. BORAH RECEIVES
WILD RECEPTION

Baltimore, October 31.—(AP)—Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, a leading campaigner for Herbert Hoover's presidential candidacy, received a wildly enthusiastic demonstration to night from a crowd of 15,000 capacity of the F. armory here.

It was nearly 15 minutes before the senator could quiet his audience to make his speech, in which a "new era in this country, with Central American nations, if Herbert Hoover were elected."

Practically the entire audience and wildly waved flags. But the senator tried in vain to restore

Daring Voyagers
Of Chattahoochee
To Sail Saturday

Although beset Wednesday by many vicissitudes today will see preparations going forward rapidly for a proposed Atlanta-to-Gulf voyage which will start on the Chattahoochee river Saturday morning.

The voyage will be made in a short 20-foot craft by Charles "Pee Wee" Grant, secretary to the chief of police, and Motorcycle Policeman C. E. Kelly, and is being undertaken to test the feasibility of plans to make the Chattahoochee navigable from the Florida gulf coast to Atlanta.

Chief among the sponsors of the trip is Grover N. Meinert and associated with him are E. H. Kelly, Wylie Moore, alderman from the seventh ward, and D. C. Black.

The boat is loaned to the expedition by Walter Candler and is a "V" keel craft powered by a four-cylinder quad-Elito motor and is capable of making 35 to 40 miles an hour in good water. The boat is now on Piedmont park lake, where it has been tested, and from 4 o'clock Friday afternoon until 10 o'clock that night the public will be allowed to board and inspect the craft.

Over the Pole to Pekin

Laid in one line, the Southern Railway System would stretch over the top of the world from the capital of America to the capital of China.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific, it would span the United States three times.

But the 8000 miles of Southern lines are laid in a network of service to the South, linking nearly all important Southern communities with each other and with the markets of the world.

The Southern has grown with the South. Its development into one of the most efficient transportation systems in the world has been made possible by the growth of the South—and has in turn laid the foundation for greater and more rapid progress of this great section in the future.

Miserable With Backache?

It May Be a Warning of Sluggish Kidneys.

ARE you always stiff and achy? Feel tired and drowsy—suffer nagging backache, headache and dizzy spells? Are the kidney secretions too frequent, scanty or burning?

These are often signs of improper kidney action and shouldn't be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:

James Corson, 214 D Street, Boston, Massachusetts, says: "My work used to be heavy and I always thought that was why my kidneys didn't act properly. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and caused a burning sensation. I was miserable with distress and backache. I used Doan's Pills and they rid me of these troubles in a short time."

Although beset Wednesday by many vicissitudes today will see preparations going forward rapidly for a proposed Atlanta-to-Gulf voyage which will start on the Chattahoochee river Saturday morning.

The voyage will be made in a short 20-foot craft by Charles "Pee Wee" Grant, secretary to the chief of police, and Motorcycle Policeman C. E. Kelly, and is being undertaken to test the feasibility of plans to make the Chattahoochee navigable from the Florida gulf coast to Atlanta.

Chief among the sponsors of the trip is Grover N. Meinert and associated with him are E. H. Kelly, Wylie Moore, alderman from the seventh ward, and D. C. Black.

The boat is loaned to the expedition by Walter Candler and is a "V" keel craft powered by a four-cylinder quad-Elito motor and is capable of making 35 to 40 miles an hour in good water. The boat is now on Piedmont park lake, where it has been tested, and from 4 o'clock Friday afternoon until 10 o'clock that night the public will be allowed to board and inspect the craft.

DANIEL IS REELECTED STATE GRAND MASTER

New Chaplain's Office Filled by Rev. T. E. Pharr, of Wadley.

Macon, Ga., October 31.—(P)—Raymond Daniel, of Atlanta, was returned to the office of grand master at the closing session of the Georgia grand lodge, F. & A. M., here today at the grand lodge building. With three exceptions, the list of officers was unchanged by the election.

The office of assistant grand chaplain was created and to it was elected Rev. T. E. Pharr, of Wadley, Ga., who has served as master of a number of Georgia lodges. Rev. A. B. Wall, of Vienna, was succeeded in the office of grand chaplain by Rev. Gilbert Dobbs, of Carrollton.

Other officers reelected were: Hugh W. Taylor, Cutbert, deputy grand master; C. H. Andrew, Macon, senior grand warden; F. C. Jones, Macon, grand treasurer; Frank P. Baker, Macon, grand secretary; Judge E. D. Thomas, Atlanta, second grand steward; H. A. Nix, Athens, first grand steward; and C. N. Jones, Newnan, grand tyler. Mr. Jones was elected to fill the place of Lee Wages, who died here several months ago after years of prominent identification in Masonic circles here and elsewhere.

Though the election of officers was the feature of the morning session, reports from committees consumed much of the time. All reports were adopted. A resolution was adopted by the grand lodge authorizing trustees of the Masonic Home to purchase 200 acres of land adjoining the home for use as pasture land. It was agreed to invest as much as $14,500 in the purchase. The purchase of this pasture land will overcome the necessity of abolishing the Masonic Home dairy, as it is said would otherwise have been forced.

WOMAN CAPTURED IN RAID ON STILL

The only persons in the house when they arrived.

The woman, who gave her name as Mrs. Ada Johnson, 22, told the officers that her husband had gone to town. She denied being the operator of the still, and would not divulge the name of the owner or operator, county police said. She is being held under $2,500 bond.

The raid was made by Lieutenant J. M. Carroll and County Officers Wilson, Williams and Allen. After the still was found, other county officers were summoned to the scene. County Officers A. A. Stovall and B. L. Hughes brought this woman to the tower, and lodged the children at the detention home.

Mrs. Johnson told officers that her husband, J. B. Johnson, is a bootlegger, and that they had moved to the house from Alabama about six weeks ago.

The house was well equipped for the manufacture of liquor. Officers said a boiler in the basement of the one-story, five-room building was arranged so as to pipe steam to a still of 100-gallon capacity. An electric pump in the well furnished water to the outfit.

WHAT DEMOCRACY HAS DONE.

On this page is a very thoughtful editorial from Judge George L. Goode, of Carnesville, Franklin county, who, by the way, was recently nominated state senator from his district.

In discussing the republican slogan of "prosperity," he points out that more prosperity for the American masses has resulted from just two legislative enactments during the Wilson administration than from all of the republican record for the past seven and a half years. He refers to the Smith-Hughes act, providing governmental aid for vocational education, and to the Smith-Lever act establishing the agricultural extension system in all of the states.

Our correspondent is correct. This is a day of necessary vocational training because it is a day of specialization and standardization. By carrying it, through government aid, to the public schools, particularly to the rural schools, it is preparing thousands of young Americans annually for careers of usefulness, productivity and happiness. The authors of this bill were Georgians. Congressman Hughes has passed on. Former Senator Smith is well and active, and is at this time devoting his time with vigor and enthusiasm to the cause of Smith and Robinson and the national democratic party.

The good that has resulted and is resulting from the agricultural extension services provided by the measure of two South Carolinians—the Smith-Lever act—is incalculable. It has made it possible for counties to have farm agents and domestic science workers, and to carry practical, modern agricultural education into the very homes and fields of the farmers. The agricultural extension service has done more for balanced production in Georgia, for teaching farmers to "live at home," to break away from one-crop slavery, and in providing ways and means for marketing, for organizing group marketing, and for making rural life more profitable and more inviting, than any other agency, and its loss to Georgia, or to any state, would be irreparable.

But these are only two of the constructive enactments during the Wilson administration. The federal reserve system is one of the outstanding accomplishments; federal aid for paved highways, is another; the budget system another, and so on, embracing practically all of the really worthwhile constructive legislation in the federal statutes.

Let it not be said, after November 6, that the south, which has profited most by this marvelous democratic record, or any state in the south, shall have repudiated the party's national record.

ROBERT LANSING.

The death at his home in Washington of Robert Lansing places into history the life and works of one of the ablest men in America, and one of this nation's outstanding figures during the world war. Few men at the bar of this country since its birth have been more learned, and few, if any, greater diplomats.

As secretary of state from June, 1915, until he retired in February, 1920, he was in charge of international relations preceding the war, and during the entire period of America's participation.

The final break with President Wilson came by reason of the latter's objection to the calling of cabinet meetings by the state department chief during the critical illness of the president following his breakdown in the west while campaigning in the interest of his international peace policy. There had been prior differences existing between the president and his secretary of state, beginning in fact during the Paris peace conference.

It has been admitted by friends and foes of President Wilson, however, that Secretary Lansing made an able, conservative, dispassionate premier, and he will live in history.

as one of the great men of his generation.

Since his retirement from the Wilson cabinet he had engaged in the practice of law at the capital, and had devoted a great deal of time to historical literature. He was the author of many books dealing with governmental problems, with peace negotiations, with foreign treaties and with international law. He was one of the editors of the American Journal of International Law.

Mr. Lansing held LL.D. degrees from Princeton, Amherst, Colgate and a number of other universities, and in the many years of active practice before he entered the Wilson cabinet he represented this government in a number of arbitration matters, including that of Behring sea, and the Alaskan boundary.

He was truly a great statesman and a great American.

OUR FELICITATIONS.

Congratulations and felicitations are extended by The Constitution to the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBoise company which begins today to celebrate, for a ten-day period, its 62nd birthday.

Opening its doors shortly after the close of the war between the states, during which Atlanta had been reduced to ashes, it has grown and developed along with the city. It has kept step in Atlanta's march of progress.

The founders helped Atlanta grow. They were civic builders as well as builders of one of the south's greatest department stores, and the Atlanta spirit of cooperation, of citizen obligation, of friendliness, and of honor and integrity in public relations, were all incorporated in this great establishment, and in its relationship with its thousands of friends whom it made and served.

From father to son, from mother to daughter, those early friendships have continued through the decades that have followed.

The good name of this institution is an outstanding asset, for it represents everything that stands for honor, and progressiveness and dependability in business.

Familiarly and affectionately known as "Chamberlin's," this merchandising emporium expanded from year to year, and for many years it has been a southern institution, and not merely an Atlanta institution. Its fame, and its fine reputation, are known and appreciated in every state and section of the south. The Constitution feels particularly proud of "Chamberlin's," for the two institutions were born at almost the same time. We have come along together, helping each other, and serving the public in the spirit of earnest and zealous cooperation.

The people of Atlanta and of the south will extend generous good wishes on such an auspicious turning of another mile post in a long and honored career.

MR. COFFIN'S GREAT WORK.

The formal opening of the beautiful new hotel, The Cloister, on St. Simon Island, directs attention specifically to the great work that is being done by Howard E. Coffin, of Michigan and Georgia, in the development of the beautiful sea islands on the Georgia coast. Mr. Coffin's palatial winter estate is on Sapelo Island. He owns the entire island, and has spent millions of dollars in its development.

Two or three years ago he became interested in St. Simon, and has since poured millions of dollars into making it a great year-around beach resort of the highest type. He has built streets and highways, fine bungalows, great amusement pavilions, and now this beautiful hotel is the latest of his developments.

Georgia appreciates Mr. Coffin, and his keen interest in the state. He is one of many wealthy men of other states who are carrying on great development projects in this state, having been attracted by climatic, health and other conditions which are such outstanding assets to the whole people.

UNCOVERING CORRUPTION.

Whatever may be the result of next Tuesday's election the disclosures of the campaign have added a great deal to the long record of republican graft and corruption in this country—and yet the surface has probably not been scratched.

In Cleveland the entire county clerk of elections and two chief clerks were dismissed by the secretary of state on account of wholesale election frauds, including alleged "ballot box stuffing," tampering with poll books, and so on. Political observers are frank to say the result of the disclosures will mean a landslide for Smith and Robinson in Cuyahoga county. At any rate it will terminate what is alleged to have been well-laid plans to "steal the county for Hoover."

In Philadelphia the republican machine is running to cover because of the recent disclosures of corruption in the police department, and the greatest "shake-up" known in any American city's municipal affairs is now on the program. And what about Chicago and the Thompson machine?

Every male child has a chance of becoming president of the United States and he had better prepare for the candidacy at birth.

Anti-Semitic Memory.

Twenty-five or 30 years ago anti-Semitism showed its ugly head in France. It was the time of the Dreyfus-affaire. Leader of the anti-Jewish forces was M. Edouard Drumont, author of several majestic tomes on all sorts of Jewish crimes, conspiracies and sinister plots. For a time Drumont was a man of power in the republic. A prolific writer, each day one paper or another carried a red-hot article by him against the Jews, inciting the population of Paris to expel or massacre the men, who he saddled with the responsibility of France losing the war of 1871, and in the same manner that Ludendorff now blames the Jews for the German military debacle of 1918. Drumont died in 1917. Half a dozen friends followed his lead to the cemetery. Among them were Leon Daudet and Senator Maurras, the royalists. A couple of months ago, as I was present at the auction sale of Drumont's belongings and was fortunate enough to acquire a fifteen century libellous manuscript, from which he had dug up his vile calumnies against the Jews, and now "Action Française," Daudet's paper, publishes an appeal for aid on behalf of Drumont's widow. She is living in a windowless garret in the same manner that Ludendorff now blames the Jews for the German military debacle of 1918. Drumont died in 1917. ## THE NIGHTMARE

By GERALD MYGATT

SYNOPSIS. Patricia Shane is being entertained in one of New York's night clubs by Fanning Edger. She is annoyed by the side of a hawk-eyed man on the opposite side of the room. At the table with the hawk are a blonde, coarsely-looking woman and a slight young man who appears to be drunk. The head waiter calls young Edger away from his table on a pretext, and as soon as he is gone the hawk approaches Patricia and tries to engage her in conversation. He is interrupted by a good looking young chap, who orders him back to his place. The newcomer introduces himself as Jimmy Kirklin. Patricia tells Kirklin that she thinks the hawk-eyed person had asked the head waiter to get rid of her escort. The hawk-eyed man then introduces Kirklin to him and then asks Fanning to take her home. A few minutes later, as Kirklin leaves the club with his companion, he is followed by a man on the street who appears to be drunk. The hawk-eyed person, known as Bart Stoman, after taking the blonde woman home, makes for his secret hideout. There he goes over a number of old newspaper clippings dealing with the disappearance of the 14-year-old daughter of Colonel La Verry, who offers a million dollars reward for the girl. He finds the picture of Sylvia La Verry, who resembles the girl he saw in the cabaret with Fanning Edger, except for a red birthmark shown in the picture.

The next day, which is Saturday, Patricia and Jimmy go to the afternoon train, and then Patricia takes the evening train to her home in Far Harbor, Long Island, after Jimmy promises to come out to Far Harbor on Monday. Patricia goes to meet Jimmy at the station and is bitterly disappointed when he doesn't appear.

But in the meantime, Jimmy has followed the blonde woman, whom he had seen in conversation with the hawk-eyed man at the station, from the train to a hotel at Spearhead, where she is joined by another man. Jimmy feels that Patricia is in some sort of danger. He is followed there by the pallid man whom Jimmy has overheard talking to the blonde woman. The stranger tells Patricia that he and his friends are interested in her as a motion picture possibility.

INSTALLMENT XL.
THE HYPNOTIC TRICK.
Behind Patricia something cracked, sputtered. She tried to turn, her heart caught by panic, but remembered instantly that the sputtering was a familiar sound, strangely reminiscent of Far Harbor's little Rosebud theater. Light was shooting forward from a head high squarish box; that was all. The light flickered, presently stilled.

"You need not be concerned, Miss Shane," stated the voice of the bald-headed man calmly. "After all, you and Mr. Kirklin are sound and sane, and as you are only to keep you from interfering with the progress and good order of our experiment. Let me assure you that nothing will happen to you. We, all of us, every one of us, are in this room, are merely about to witness a display of motion pictures."

A whirling noise again.
"Oh, botheration!" "Now why did I leave that old picture in there? I was showing it to my kids. I'm sorry, my friends, but there seems to be an old reel in the machine which I must first run off. Then the rest will follow—more interesting, no doubt, though perhaps not as amusing." Patricia was staring at the square light that had blazed out upon a whitish sheet fastened across one end of the room. There she gazed. The familiar face of Charlie Chaplin was grinning out at her. Why, what on earth?

It was an old Chaplin film. The comedian lifted his ridiculous little derby, hat, flicked his cane, skidded around a corner, walked splay footed down a long dusty road. Patricia couldn't help herself; she smiled, though nervously. Chaplin fell sprawling, got up ruefully. Some one, a dark figure just behind her, chuckled pleasantly.

"Ah, that is over! We shall now begin to travel, my friends. You will find this film particularly interesting since it is the first important exhibition of my new three dimensional projection upon a plane surface. One sees depth and distance, an effect hitherto achieved only by binocular adaptations. Here it is accomplished by an ingenious juxtaposition of prisms. You will find the illusion remarkably perfect. Ah! We are now in the Rockies, if you please, taking a railway journey upon the forward end or pilot of a locomotive."

A mountain valley flashed into view; a long winding railway track narrowing in the distance. The track seemed to slide backward. Just as the bald man had pointed out, one seemed to be sitting upon the front of a moving train.

Patricia narrowed her eyes thoughtfully. For the life of her she could not understand, could not even guess what the idea of showing this film might be. In one of times she had seen pictures just like it; she remembered an old one, "A Rule on a Runaway Train." Of course this one was better, being more modern, and the effect of reality was just about perfect.

The train took a curve. The curve was so real that involuntarily Patricia balanced herself. Another curve, then a tunnel. Now they were climbing and climbing fast. The valley showed far below; little houses, tiny trees, a diminutive church, another train in miniature puffing along a toy track. Still they climbed, up and up. They plunged into a black tunnel, came out on the other side precariously skirting the edge of a terrific precipice.

This time Patricia tried to clutch her chair. A wriggle of sharp curves showed for an instant ahead, and almost as instantly their train was upon them, snaking around them at reckless speed, now lurching out toward the edge of an empty abyss, now heading straight for a rocky crag, now teetering over nothingness again.

"I'm holding tight," Patricia thought. After all, she reflected coolly, this was only a picture; a very real picture, maybe, but a picture just the same. What if it did make you feel exactly as if you were on the racing train? Nothing could happen to you.

The track kinked out of sight behind the abrupt shoulder of a precipitous mountain and valley flashed before her. She threw herself to the right, away from that horrid giddiness of air and toward the mountain wall. For an instant it seemed as if she could feel the very bite of the wheel flanges as they tried to climb the outer rail. Then—lurch, lurch, lurch!—the track was before her eyes again. They had made it.

The black mouth of a tunnel yawned before them. Then an arch shaped spot of light, spreading, spreading. They were out in daylight again. The track ran straight, curved gently around a spur of the mountain wall, and then— Patricia caught her breath, her heart! Not two city blocks ahead the track ended, absolutely ended, squarely at the edge of a precipice!

With both her feet Patricia jammed on the brakes, just as she would have jammed them on in automobile. Her chair squeaked backward. Behind her she heard similar squeaks. The others were doing the same thing. The brakes! They must stop—they must. She pushed again, harder.

The train seemed to quiver, jar. One could see it jar as well as feel it. Yes, they were slowing down, slowing down. But not enough! Why, the end of the track was right in front of them, right under them, just two rail butts sticking out into empty air. They must . . . they would . . .

Slowly, awesomely the forward end of the train sagged, tilted, went over and off that ghastly edge. In sudden desperation Patricia leaned back, tried to jump. And then—she could see it in this room, it—she was falling, spinning and falling . . . falling . . .

Beneath her, miles beneath her, blurred pinpoints and little squares which must be feet of it—she was falling, spinning and falling . . . falling . . .

A shape shot upward past her—a bird. She wanted to close her eyes, tried to close them, opened them immediately. It was sickening, that fall. Sparks! A pinwheel swirl of sparks, red and green, yellow and bright blue. An eye appeared in the corner of the sparks. The eye grew and grew, staring straight at her. Just an eye, but it stared. Now it came toward her until the sparks were just flickers of colored light, somewhere back in the caverns of that enormous eye.

"You have dreamed this many times," the voice that belonged to the eye said loudly and plainly. "You are not falling. You are dreaming. You are asleep." The voice seemed to drone now. "I tell you, you are asleep. It is I who have put you to sleep, to save you from falling. By my genius you sleep and you no longer fall, for if you fall you die. You are not falling. You are asleep, sound asleep. You are peaceful now. When I wake you, you will awaken. In the meantime, in perfect peace, you will dream—with me."

The eye seemed to fade . . . fade . . . "You will dream my dreams," said the voice from a great distance. "You may close your eyes and sleep in peace, while you dream my dreams." Patricia closed her eyes. She drew in and let out a deep breath. Thank heaven, thank a merciful heaven! She had not been falling. She was merely dreaming, and asleep.

"It is beautiful," he said to himself, nodding his satisfaction at the tomblike blackness of the oblong brick chamber which once had been the secret lodge room of a respected chapter of an estimable fraternity. "Never before have I seen anything so beautiful. A perfect mechanical hypnosis—by the voice of my wholesale, let us say. Hereafter it has been eye to eye, will against will. Now it is machine to eye, suggestion against will. That Frenchman Cose made me think of that. Break down the will by disarming it. Show a picture of Charlie Chaplin first, simply to make them forget. They laugh! Ha! It is not they who laugh. Instead, I laugh!"

WORK N BITTER FIGHT ON FUNDS FOR SCHOOLS

Appropriations for Plumbing Passed Over Councilman's Protest.

Declaring that if the board of education had been judicious in its expenditure of bond money, appeals to city council for extra funds would be unnecessary, Councilman York Wednesday bitterly opposed a request brought to the city finance committee by a delegation of women from the Spring street and Moreland schools asking for immediate relief from unsanitary conditions said to prevail at these schools due to faulty plumbing.

"The board of education may need money," he stated, "but if it had not expended so much for dolls, toys and phonographs it would be prepared to cope with just such cases as these."

Spring Street Delegation.
The first appeal for aid came from a delegation from the Spring Street Parent-Teachers' association and it was stated that faulty plumbing at this institution was creating an ever-present health menace to the school children which should be remedied at once. A similar request was made by a delegation from the Moreland school, where, it was reported, conditions equally as bad prevail. The board of education, it was said, did not have sufficient funds to remedy the situation at this time and so the matter had been brought before the council's finance committee.

Councilman York maintained that it was a question for the board to handle alone, stating that the city also was embarrassed for funds and that men with families to feed were being laid off from work because there were not sufficient funds to continue building operations and keep them employed.

Men Walking Streets.
"Why should we be called on to help out the school situation when men are walking the streets because the city cannot afford to employ them and because the school board has spent its money on toys?" he demanded.

Arguments on both sides continued for fully 30 minutes when it was finally agreed that a finance committee meeting was no place to discuss reasons for the lack of necessary money when funds for immediate and imperative improvements were needed and a motion was proposed and passed authorizing the appropriation of $2,500 to improve plumbing conditions at Spring Street school and the necessary amount for similar improvements at Moreland, provided the chairman of the finance committee and the city comptroller could find the necessary funds.

Other appropriations included $1,350 for repairs and replacements in the water department and $8,500 for supplies, repairs and replacements in the garage and shop department. The chairman and comptroller also were authorized to find additional funds for the city warden's office.

DECATUR LIBRARY BODY WILL MEET FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Decatur, Ga., October 31.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of the Decatur Public Library association for 1928 will be held in the reading room of the library at the city hall on McDonough street on Friday evening, November 2, at 8 o'clock.

It is announced by the board of directors that reports on the work of the library for the last twelve months, showing "extraordinary gains in service to the community and to the schools" will be submitted and that vacancies on the board, because of expired terms, will be filled. "All members of the library, including subscribers to the patron membership fund, are urged to be present," states the board, "and every citizen of Decatur is cordially invited."

ATLANTA-VIENNA TO BE CONNECTED BY PHONE NOV. 3

Telephone service to Vienna, eighth largest city in the world, will be available to all American subscribers beginning Saturday, November 3. The rate for trans-Atlantic telephone calls to the Austrian capital will be $2 higher per minute than the present rates from this country to London. Thus an Atlanta-Vienna call will cost $54 for the first three minutes and $18 for each minute thereafter.

With the addition of Vienna's 110,000 telephones serving a population of nearly two million people, eight of the 12 largest cities in the world will be interconnected by telephone. Thus two years' extensions of trans-Atlantic service make it possible in the case of metropolitan areas of these eight cities alone for nearly thirty-two million people to be within sound of each other's voices. These cities are New York, London, Berlin, Chicago, Paris, Philadelphia, Vienna and Boston.

GEORGIA NIMRODS READY FOR OPENING OF DEER SEASON

The open season on deer begins today and lasts until December 31 and a large number of deer hunters are preparing to take the field in quest of the big game, according to an announcement Wednesday by Peter S. Twitty, state game and fish commissioner. Commissioner Twitty calls on all hunters to show real sportsmanship in hunting deer and to abide by the state laws. The law prevents the killing of a female deer.

The game is plentiful this year, a survey of 30 south Georgia counties shows, and the season is longer this year than in any previous year in the history of the department.

Unightly Skin Eruptions Gone in Three Days

If you are wise and want to get rid of them so quickly that you will be astonished you'll get a 35 cent box of Peterson's Ointment today and let its mighty healing power make you joyfully happy in just a few days. You'll praise it to your friends ever after, for it surely does heal and leaves the skin clear, healthy and good to look upon.

And here's something more than a multitude of Peterson's Ointment friends know—make a note of it. This good old remedy is just as healing for eczema, pimples, rashes and ulcers as it is for skin eruptions and if you doubt it ask any broad-minded druggist.

Keep it in the house for burns and scalds, bruises, scratches, itching skin, chafing and like ailments.—(adv.)

MAGNIFICENT NEW NATIONAL GARAGE OPENS TODAY

ATLANTA GARAGE OWNED BY LOCAL CIVIC LEADERS

National Atlanta Garages, Inc., with a magnificent five-story garage building fronting on the Spring street viaduct just off Marietta street in the rear of the Glenn building, will formally open to the public this morning.

The new garage, located in the central area and accessible to all business houses, hotels and theaters, will offer a complete storage and servicing plan to the motoring public of Atlanta, inaugurating many innovations here for the benefit of car owners.

The building contains 300,000 cubic feet of space and was erected at a cost of about $300,000. Its foundation was so laid as to be able to support eight additional floors should the demand for this additional space arise.

Owned By Atlantans.

While National Atlanta Garages, Inc., is operated with all of the experience gained through the nationwide chain of National Garages, Inc., officials said Wednesday, this particular unit is owned exclusively by citizens of Atlanta. The president is Judge John S. Candler, who is one of the leading financiers, educators and philanthropists in the south. His son, Major Asa W. Candler, for many years a prominent member of the Atlanta bar, is vice president. C. F. Palmer, president of Palmer, Inc., owner of various office buildings in the financial district, is secretary and treasurer.

Over a year ago negotiations were entered into with National Garages, Inc., to interest that organization in bringing its service to Atlanta. After exhaustive studies were made of conditions in this city, a decision was reached, consummating the details for this connection.

Chauffeur service for an hour or a day or a year by bonded, specially trained, uniformed, white attendants is but one of the many metropolitan facilities to be provided. The decision by National Garages to establish an operating connection in Atlanta is of as much importance to the automobile owners of Atlanta as the decision by the Board.

Ultra-Modern Garage.

The new garage is ultra-modern in every respect. Spacious and on every floor, it is ramped throughout. Its lobby is a beautiful marble-tiled apartment with waiting and rest rooms beautifully furnished. A corps of uniformed chauffeurs will serve the garage patrons and a complete auto service is offered.

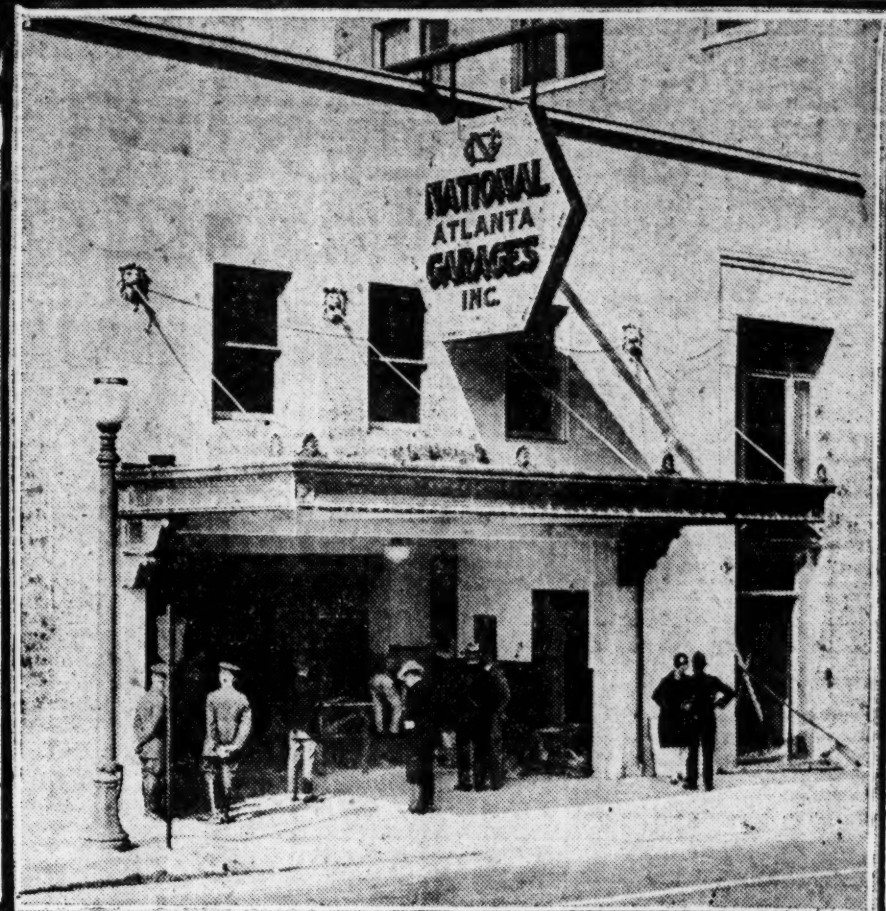

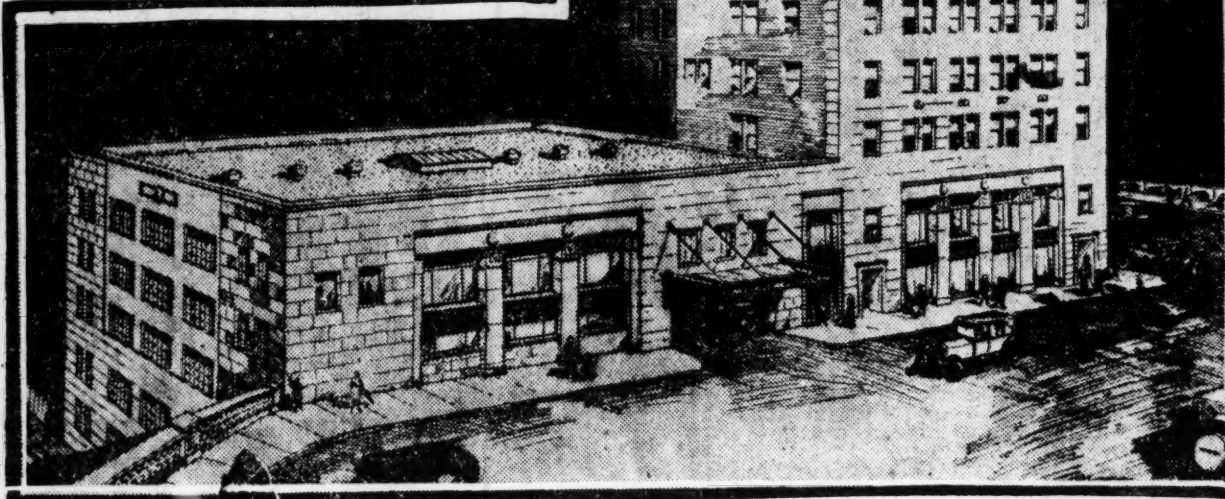

Fred J. Jackson, widely-experienced in other cities with the National Garage chain, will be temporary manager of the Atlanta unit. Officials of the national organization here from Detroit for the opening today are T. L. R. Lyster, director engineer; G. H. Leete, manager of sales; and William F. Fairhead, assistant sales manager.

The National Garages chain includes seven big plants in Detroit, and others in Chicago, Portland, Memphis, Boston, Birmingham, Pittsburgh and Columbus—the Atlanta garage being the fifteenth in the organization.

"The popularity of the location of

GARAGE REMOVES DRIVING WORRIES

Standard design of National Garages, Inc., plants provides proper physical facilities for giving automobile owners the special automatic service which is a part of the general service of the garages, officials stated Wednesday.

Patrons may secure automatic service upon signing an authorization order. Such patron's car is cared for automatically through a carefully kept card system so that at all times he is assured that his tires are properly inflated; his battery is maintained; his gas tank contains never less than five gallons; his oil is kept at the required level; crankcase drained and new oil supplied; oiling and greasing performed at designated mileage periods. This work is done by trained men for aliciting and other high pressure lubricating service. The only cost of these services to the patron is the price of gas and oil, lubricating, etc., as determined in competitive outside stations.

For a fixed reasonable charge monthly, complete washing-polishing service is rendered, including daily dusting of car, etc.

For a small monthly charge, inspection of batteries, recharging when necessary, are supplied.

For the actual cost of repairs, tire inspection and service are rendered, including maintaining of proper inflation.

Kansans Prepare Hoover Welcome Along His Route

Topeka, October 31.—(AP)—The paths of Herbert Hoover and Senator Charles Curtis will cross Kansas Saturday as the republican presidential nominee travels to the Pacific coast and his running mate returns to his home state for the windup of the campaign. The itineraries of the candidates are such that they will not have a chance to meet, however.

An airplane will escort the Hoover train across Kansas with a siren heralding the special's approach, under plans announced today by republican state headquarters.

Two live elephants, emblems of the republican party, hitched tandem to a float bearing a live donkey, emblem of the democratic party, were announced as part of the welcome citizens of Topeka and Lomey have arranged for the reception of Mr. Hoover when his train stops at the latter town early Saturday morning.

Cowboys from the Flint Hills will don old style "chaps" and "45s" to lend a bit of color reminiscent of the "wild west" when the train stops at Council Grove.

Senator Curtis' special car will enter the state Saturday morning and halt a dozen brief stops are scheduled en route to Wichita, where he will speak at night. He will return to his home Sunday morning, remaining until the election.

FAMINE CONDITIONS TO BESET CHINA DURING WINTER

Shanghai, October 31.—(AP)—Advises from Canton and Hankow today indicated that famine conditions would prevail during the coming winter in the vast central provinces of Hupeh and Hunan and the south China provinces of Kwangtung and Kiangsi. A population of more than one hundred million lives in this area of some 350,000 square miles. Famine and subnormal crops already prevail in the provinces of Shantung and Chihli.

The fall rice crop in Kwangtung was 40 per cent below normal while that in Kwangsi was 60 per cent under normal. The situation in both provinces was due to a prolonged drought. Conditions in both provinces were unexpected as a bountiful crop had been forecast. Various localities in both provinces were in serious want and in some places actual famine was already in evidence.

MARCUS GARVEY IS UNDER ARREST AT MONTREAL, QUE.

Montreal, Quebec, October 31.—(AP) Marcus Garvey, president general of the Universal Negro Improvement association, was taken into custody by immigration officials last night and detained at the local offices of the department. The order for his detention came from Ottawa, but the charge was not made public. He will appear before a board of inquiry tomorrow.

Garvey arrived here a few days ago from Europe and was to have attended a meeting of his associates in Toronto in connection with the work of the association, of which he is the head.

Ottawa, Ontario, October 31.—(AP) The department of immigration said today that Marcus Garvey, who was taken into custody in Montreal last night, was detained on the ground that he came within the prohibited classes of immigrants.

The immigration authorities said that he was given a five-year term in the Atlanta penitentiary on a conviction in the United States and that subsequently he was deported.

Garvey will appear before a board of inquiry either today or tomorrow for a hearing when a decision will be made whether he is to be deported.

ROUND-THE-GLOBE WOMEN AUTOISTS ARE IN NEW YORK

New York, October 31.—(AP)—Two young English women determined to be the first of their sex to travel around the world by automobile without the aid of more men arrived today on the steamship Tuscania.

Miss Gladys de Havilland, sister of Captain Geoffrey de Havilland, builder of airplane motors, and Miss Mona Eley, daughter of Mayor Eley, of Andover, England, will set out tomorrow in a little seven-horse power machine, one of the smallest built, for San Francisco via Indianapolis, Kansas, Santa Fe and Los Angeles.

Other women who have attempted to motor around the world have had the aid of men, they said. Miss De Havilland will be her own mechanic. They expect to arrive in London about the end of April. They will carry an old boot for luck and very little baggage.

SERVICE IS IDEA BACK OF GARAGE

The idea behind National Garages, Inc., had its inception in the minds of a group of motor car manufacturers who recognized the pressing need for adequate parking facilities for motor cars in the downtown areas of major cities. These men, some of whom have been very active in the good-roads movement, realized that the use of the motor car, as proved by the good-roads movement, is limited only by the facilities provided, and that throughout the United States the absence of downtown parking facilities was interfering with the free use of the city-owned motor car.

The idea of these men, that a concerted effort to offer a practical solution of the problem should be made, was reflected in the minds of Atlanta leaders, who realized that there was an absence of parking facilities downtown.

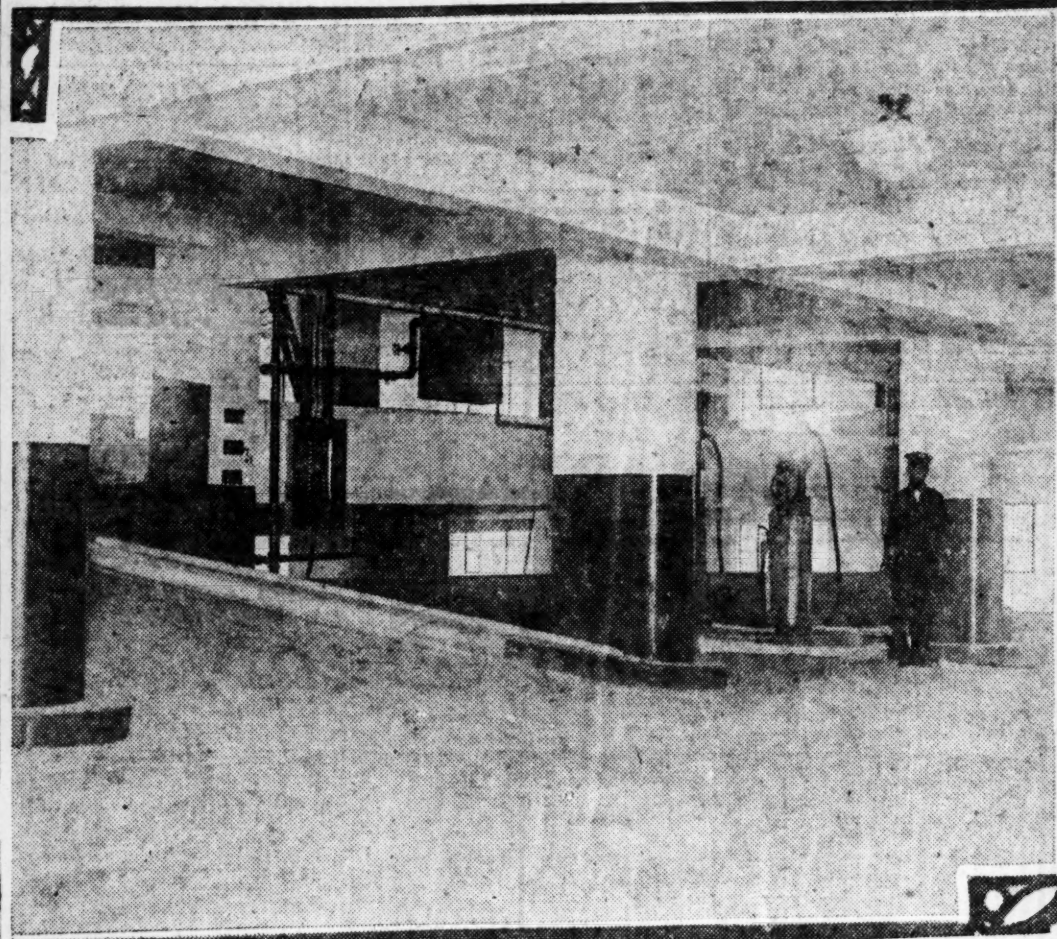

The National Atlanta Garage, Inc., was the outcome of this joining of ideas. Research for building ideas covered the entire country, the most approved designs, the traffic problems involved, and their bearing on location, etc., with the result that the following general theories, officials pointed out, were established for demonstration:

"1. Convenient location. Since motorists will park only where convenient, the limit being three to four blocks' walk from the ultimate destination, convenient location meant expensive property.

"2. Low construction cost. Many unprofitable efforts to establish large

System of Ramps and Uniformed Corps of Expert Chauffeurs To Serve Patrons

CHAUFFEURS NEW GARAGE SERVICE

Three shifts of attractively-uniformed, expert chauffeurs will serve patrons of the Atlanta National Garage, officials announced Wednesday. These chauffeurs have three weights of uniforms issued them—two weights of gray uniforms for fall and winter, and a white uniform for summer wear.

Outlining this new service, an official said:

"When shopping, Atlantans may drive to the garage unit and pick up a uniformed chauffeur. The charge by the hour or 'action of an hour is moderate. Many women have come to appreciate this service.

"For the theater just pick up a chauffeur and drive your car to the show. He will return your car to you at the proper call hour—a moderate charge.

"For luncheons, dinners or after-theater parties at the principal hotels. Doormen at the main entrances of the principal hotels will get claim checks and see that the car is taken to the garage and returned at the proper hour. Firearm searches for parking space are eliminated.

"For general chauffeur use in or out of town. Chauffeurs for business or pleasure trips out of town are furnished. This service is backed by a powerful, responsible organization.

"Regular leaseholding patrons may drive in and out without a stop, by virtue of a handsome engraved identifying medallion on their radiators. The patron drives to his floor and either parks his for himself or leaves it in a magazine provided, where the uniformed floor man, always on duty, performs this service and anything else desired. The patron then descends in a conveniently located passenger elevator which lands him in the lobby of the garage."

Condemned Bandit Sets Fire to Cot In Death Cell

Pittsburgh, October 31.—(AP)—Paul Jaworski, notorious bandit under sentence to die for killing a payroll guard, fired his cot in the county jail here yesterday. Warden John McNeil said today. The warden said the fire was an accident and it was quickly extinguished.

According to McNeil, the condemned man was lying on the cot smoking and dropped a match on a newspaper under the bed. The paper flamed up and the cot was set afire. Jaworski is partly paralyzed, having been wounded by a bullet fired by Cleveland police when they captured him several weeks ago.

BANKER IS WOUNDED BY ANGERED BANDITS

Refusal To Open Safe Draws
Fire Against Cashier in Michigan.

Argyle, Mich., October 31.—(AP)—Two men and a woman entered the home of Henry Prentiss, cashier of a private bank here, last night and held Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss captive more than half the night while they attempted to compel him to open the bank safe and finally shot the banker in the leg, fracturing the bone when he attempted to escape. Argyle is in Sanilac county. While the woman laundit watched over Mrs. Prentiss the men marched Prentiss to the bank where he told them he did not know the combination. Then they returned him home where the five partook of an early "min; breakfast prepared by the woman robber. Under questioning Prentiss told the robbers that Mrs. Don Eerdell, assistant cashier, knew the combination of the bank safe and they then escorted him to the Herdell home. Herdell answered the doorbell. When one of the robbers shoved a revolver in his face, Herdell hit him and slammed the door. Prentiss, taking advantage of the situation, also struck the bandit and fled. He was shot through the right leg as he ran. Returning to the Prentiss home the two men joined their woman companion and fled. They obtained only a small sum of money from the Prentiss home. Today Prentiss was in a hospital and his wife was under the care of a physician as a result of nerve shock.

The home of Duncan McKelth, in Yale, Mich., was entered and robbed in a similar manner three weeks ago. McKelth, cashier of the Yale bank, foiled an attempt to force him to open the bank safe.

ZEPPELIN STOWAWAY FINDS SELF FAMOUS

Berlin, October 31.—(AP)—Clarence Terhune, American boy stowaway on the air liner Graf Zeppelin, will receive a hearty welcome to Germany, and can have a job if he wants one. He will not be subjected to molestation by the police whether he receives a temporary passport or not. The Wurttemberg minister of interior advised the Friedrichshafen airport officials today: "Treat the 'blind' passenger in the most loyal manner possible."

The Leonhard Tietz company, which owns a chain of department stores throughout Germany, sent this radio message to Terhune aboard the dirigible: "Offer you immediate job. Wireless your terms and time of arrival." The world famed Hagenback menagerie at Hamburg also sent Terhune a wireless message offering him a position. The message stated that in view of his having shown exceptional courage he would be given employment as a trainer of wild animals.

More Showers, Mercury Rise Seen Today

Atlanta was treated to one of the coldest mornings this fall on Wednesday, when the thermometer began its daily climb from a minimum of 40, the lowest of the month, according to official figures of the local

United States weather bureau. The maximum of 60, however, reached about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, was a full 10 degrees above Tuesday's high point. More rain is predicted for today according to the forecast of C. F. von Herrmann, head of the local bureau who says that showers are on the way. The temperature will be a little higher, he stated, although no great change is expected.

David "Purity" Jones Gets 3-Year Term In Federal Prison

St. Louis, October 31.—(AP)—A high pressure financial career was ended here today when David "Purity" Jones, laundry machinery manufacturer, pleaded guilty to using the mails to defraud creditors of $1,000,000 and was sentenced in federal court to serve three years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

Postal inspectors charged that Jones had defrauded banks, finance companies and his laundry men friends and customers through duplicated promissory notes and spurious chat tel mortgages. It was charged Jones sold machinery and took notes in payment. He discounted the notes with banks or finance companies; and later got renewal notes from the laundry men, promising he would destroy the original paper. Instead he sold the renewals and kept the originals standing against the makers.

Jones who was a former saloon keeper, was given the nickname "Purity" from his advertisements of laundry machinery which he signed "David Purity Jones."

2,900,000 Armistice Letters From France Sent to America

Le Havre, France, October 31.—(AP)—Two million letters, the largest mailing ever sent from France, started to America today on the French steamer Rochambeau. They are timed for delivery to American women about Armistice day.

These letters, although advertising matter, have been turned to propaganda uses. They have been addressed by hand by French war widows and are sealed. They bear French stamps instead of the customary printed stamp license used in large business mailings, so that American women, getting a letter from France on Armistice day will think of the country where many sent their sons or husbands to war.

Because of that feature of the business the French government encouraged the mailing, made by a Rue de la Paix perfumer, and arranged the special postal facilities necessary to handle such a huge distribution and held the Rochambeau exclusively for the carrying of the letters.

garages were proved to have been due to the cost of construction, which was in many cases dictated by ideas originating from practice in apartment house, office building and hotel construction. Low construction cost was found possible through specialized design.

The conception that the use of motor cars had reached a point where the garage business should be a high-grade public service involving the same principles that led to successful hotel operation. The crux of this is that the garage business should be considered as a retail business along the lines of the great department stores, with low prices, clearly-marked prices and one price to all, with the usual credits to responsible patrons and financial responsibility on the part of the garage company for failure in the service or damage to the cars handled.

"4. That the garage business should be conducted on a high plane, with uniformed chauffeurs, highly-paid employees and a readiness to serve the motor car owner in all of his needs; to provide for all motorists the same conveniences as enjoyed by those employing a private chauffeur.

"5. Prices should be graded in such a way as to meet the needs and pocketbook of the largest number of individual car owners; so that one driver can find accommodations on the upper floors at a reasonable rate, while the driver of the powerful, expensive car may find the accommodations on the lower floors such as he desired and was willing to pay for."

President Sees Former Ambassador Victor in Senate Fight.

Washington, October 31.—(United News.)—President Coolidge today accepted the resignation of Alanson B. Houghton as ambassador to Great Britain and predicted his election as United States senator from New York. Houghton is a candidate on the republican ticket against the present democratic senator, Royal S. Copeland. The president's letter expressed regret at Houghton's resignation, "even though," it said, "it is to be followed by a continuation of your public life in the senatorship of the state of New York." The letter said the ambassador's resignation had been tendered recently and praised Houghton's services in the diplomatic corps both in Great Britain and in Germany.

Catarrh is Most Common Cause of Colds and Flu

Find a man, woman or child who is afflicted with chronic catarrh of the nose and its connecting air passages and you will always find a patient who is most susceptible to more serious diseases. Why? Science explains that catarrh interferes with nature's breathing thus preventing proper oxygenation and purification of the blood by the lungs and also absolute, prevents restful, refreshing sleep. Catarrh is a constant drain upon the nutrition of the body, making the patient weak and thereby susceptible to all germ infections such as colds, flu, pneumonia, etc.

remedies that have been tested for the relief of catarrh, none has given such uniformly successful results to the physician or attained such popular favor as the prescription of Dr. Runion, known to your druggist as Runion's White Wonder Salve. Applied in the nostrils, morning and night, "White Wonder" gives quick and most delightful relief. ## How an Expectant Mother Prepared for Baby's Coming

IT has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering experienced during expectancy, as well as at childbirth, is entirely unnecessary.

Tight tissues, binding muscles, sensitive nerves—all tend to set up an aggravated condition—sapping strength and leaving the expectant mother unprepared to meet the crisis.

Mother's Friend is a comfort to expectant mothers. Externally applied, it relieves prenatal distress by relaxing tight tissues and muscles. And it is so soothing. Its daily use makes the skin soft and pliable.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first child I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Mother's Friend is the discovery of an eminent physician. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. For over three generations Mother's Friend has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Begin using Mother's Friend today. The sooner the better. Sold by drug stores—everywhere.

Mrs. Eugene Harrington was elected president of the Young Matrons' circle for Tallulah Falls school at the luncheon meeting held yesterday at Brookhaven Country club, at which she has previously demonstrated her qualifications relative to organization work, having dedicated her services to further many constructive programs launched in Atlanta and in Georgia. Under her administration many valuable educational contributions will be developed by the circle.

Mrs. Lawrence Willet, who has served with such distinction and ability as the beloved first president of the circle for the past two years, presided at the luncheon meeting with Mrs. Reginald Fleet acting as recording secretary and over 150 guests present. Mrs. Turner Jones, scholarship chairman, reported $800 paid on the circle's perpetual scholarship and six personal scholarship gifts for last year, one of these being a perpetual given in honor of Vezey Rainwater by his four sons. Her report also included the Elizabeth Winship Bates scholarship of $150 which is the memorial gift of one of our own directors, Mrs. Anne Bates Walsh, as a loving tribute to her mother, and a scholarship of $150 given by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burnett. These two are from members of the circle. Mrs. William D. Ellis, Sr., gave a scholarship in honor of her three grandsons, Ewell Gay, Jr., Bill Ellis Gay and Frank Lipscomb; William D. Ellis gift scholarship is to be known as the Mildred Rutherford and Mrs. T. W. Tift presented a $150 annual scholarship. Miss Ruth Osburn, president of Young Girls' circle, pledged a new annual scholarship of $150.

Advisory Scholarship.
A new scholarship which greatly interests the circle is the gift of one of the advisory committee, Mrs. Price Gilbert, who has created the Frances Anderson Howard perpetual scholarship in loving memory of her mother, the late Mrs. William J. Howard.

Miss Davis, principal of Tallulah Falls school, told of the opening of the school this year with 244 pupils and expressed great appreciation of what has been done by the Young Matrons' circle in scholarship, gifts of clothing and equipment and in fitting up the dental clinic which has made possible the work of Dr. Thomas Crenshaw, Jr. She introduced groups of students who spoke briefly and sang Tallulah school songs. Miss Anne Taylor, of the graduating class of 1928, told of the school as her home in childhood and presented to Mrs. Willet a hand-woven spread in recognition of her services as first president of the Young Matrons' circle.

Committee Reports.
The following committee chairmen made reports: Mesdames Edwin Peeples, membership; Charles Freeman, ways and means; Reginald Fleet, clothes and equipment; and the dental clinic committee, with Mesdames George McCarty, chairman; Daniel C. Black, Rembert Marshall, as follows: "The fine work of Dr. Thomas Crenshaw, Jr., and his assistant, Miss Hays, has continued with unflinching enthusiasm and it is a real privilege for this circle to have been able to make his generous gift possible by furnishing the small but complete dental clinic in which he works. The tussle clinic given by Dr. and Mrs. Stewart Brown, of Royston, is a wonderful second step towards health for the school. Both Dr. Crenshaw and Dr. Brown are convinced that the school should have a small infirmary, for which many professional men would give their services, and in which contagious diseases could be isolated and home care of the sick taught at all times."

Stubborn Cough Quickly Ended by Famous Recipe

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn lining cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that usually follow the "flu."

From any drugist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strain honey. Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and calm the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchitis-tracheitis.

Tech on Top at Half, Favored To Win Southern Title

Commodores And Georgia Are Menaces

Tide, Tennessee or Clemson May Upset Dope; Florida Also Feared.

BY BEN COTHRAN.

The southern football parade has reached the halfway mark and swings down now into the dim, dark and murky days of November, on into the stretch.

Football chitchat begins to center more and more around conference champions, all-southern teams and the like. You've had ample time to watch the progress of your favorite. Mayhap he has stumbled and been trampled in the mad push of the horse to forge ahead. Then again, perhaps he's running out in front.

Three Favorites.

To this observer it seems that three of the four rated from the beginning as favorites—Tech, Georgia, Vanderbilt—Alabama having been kicked by Tennessee—will be just that when November has merged into December, the days become shorter and you begin to see signs telling you how many more shopping days you have left before the annual advent of Santa Claus and flattened pocketbooks.

A couple of the lads are liable to slip in from the outside and upset any and all precious pennant plans. There seems to be nothing to stop the mad rush of Josh Cody's Clemson carousers unless it's Crabtree. Goodbread and Co. of Florida. And those lads are likely to stop more than Clemson. Florida is potent and powerful. Their record would seem to indicate as much.

The Tennessee Terrors.

Then, too, the sophomore bunch from Tennessee wouldn't object at all to stopping Vanderbilt in the annual struggle which is to take place in Nashville on November 17, and prance on their way unbeaten.

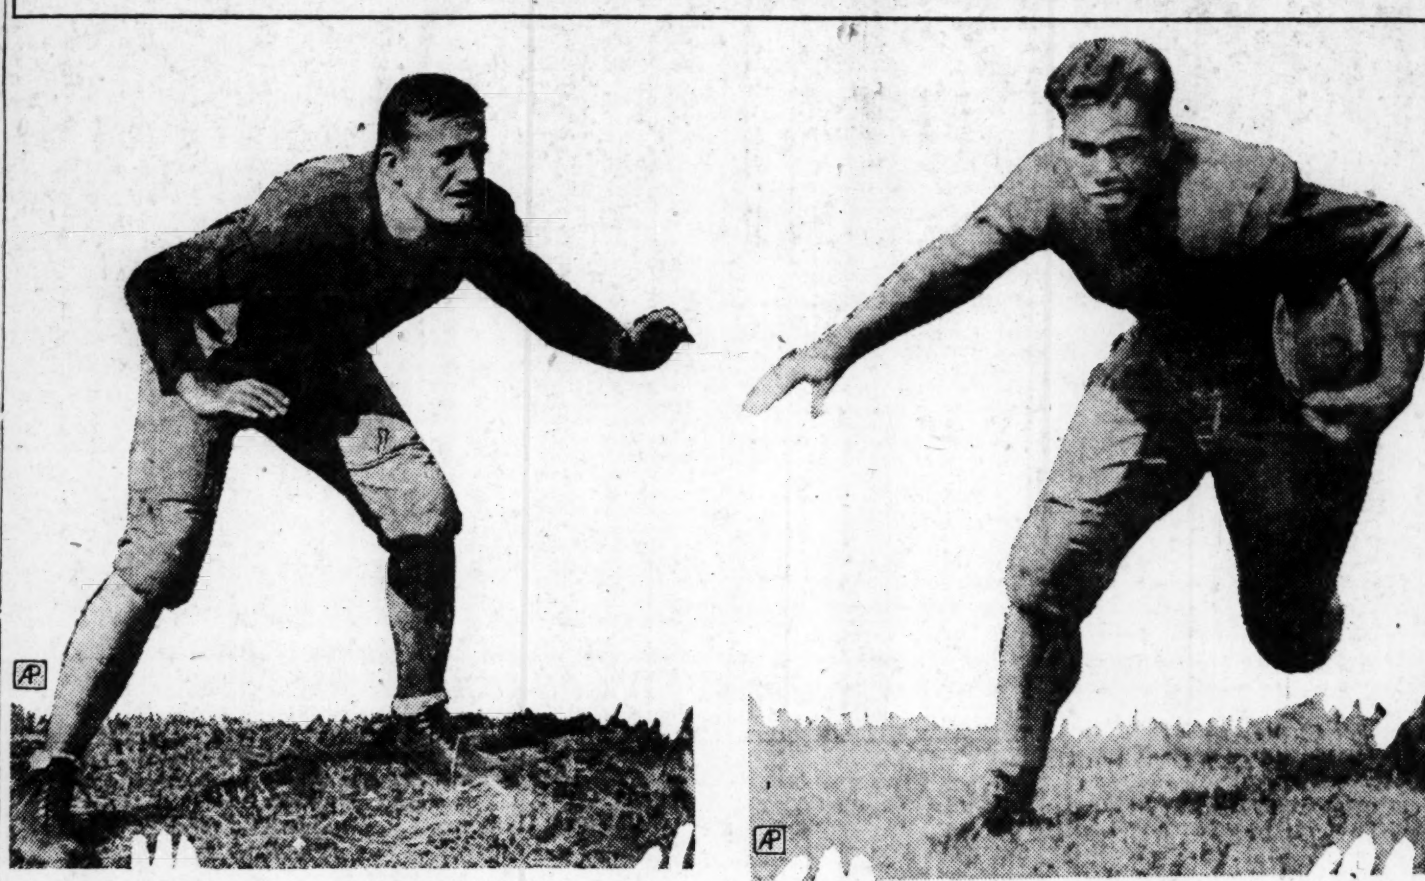

Outside of those it seems that the favored three are destined to cut their own throats, for they all meet each other towards the close of the season.

It might not be amiss at this point to take this favorable forecast and see just exactly what intervenes between them and the middle of December when ideas about conference champions become concrete facts.

Let's take the Jacket first. He seems to be the outstanding favorite. This Saturday brings Oglethorpe, which has no bearing on the race. But following the Petrels is a stretch that will take Ed Hamm to jump. If it was anyone but Tech we'd be inclined to say that it couldn't be done. First is Vanderbilt, and right after Mr. McGugin's young men, the Crimson Tide, swirls in. Vanderbilt this year is tough and has come right through a hard schedule that will toughen it for a foe like Tech. About 10 days of rest are allowed before the Engineers take on Auburn.

TWO SOUTHERN CONFERENCE STARS

Two real stars of the Southern Conference are shown above. The photo on the left is that of Jess Tinsley, captain of the Louisiana State university football team. He has given a good account of himself this year, and is one of the principal causes for the Tigers not being scored on but once this season. Eugene McEver, right, is the sensational sophomore ground gainer of the Tennessee team. McEver ran back the opening kickoff for 98 yards in the Volunteer-Alabama contest.

JIM BROWNING WILL GRAPPLE HERE NOV. 8

Jim Browning, the fellow who beat Rough Richard Davis here recently, will be matched with some worthy exponent of the bone crushing profession on November 8 wrestling card, according to John Contos, promoter.

Contos announced Wednesday night that he had the big Kansan's name on the dotted line and that he will now turn his thoughts to bring some good wrestler here for Browning in the main event of the next mat program.

The Hellenic matchmaker says he has several good men in view and that he will do everything possible to bring an outstanding grappler here for his next card. Among those Contos has his eyes on are Zbysko, Jones, Malcewicz, and other leading grapplers. Contos received a letter from Browning in which the Kansan stated that he would meet any wrestler he could secure for a match here. Contos has wires out and expects to be able to announce his opponent in a day or two.

Boys' High To Play Moultrie on Friday

Undefeated Teams Will Clash; Atlanta Squad Will Depart Tonight for Game.

The Purple Hurricane, of Boys' High, will journey to Moultrie, Ga., to battle the Moultrie High Packers Friday. This will be the Purple's first officially scheduled road trip, and will involve a tough game.

The Moultrie High team has won the southwest Georgia championship a number of times, and last year was noosed out in a close game by the Valdosta team.

Coch Dode Phillips, of the Packers, has turned an aggregation that intends to keep the Moultrie record clean, as shown by the decisive wins of the team so far this season. The Moultrie boys have not been defeated on their home field for the last 10 years.

In Isom the Packers have one of the best backs in the state. He is not only large and heavy but is also shifty and elusive and is bound to cause trouble for any opposition. Last week against Bainbridge, which Moultrie defeated 31-0, Isom demonstrated his ability by making one run for 60 yards and one of 40 yards. Redfern and Humphries are two other backs that will bear watching. The defense of the Packers in the game against Bainbridge left nothing to be desired.

The Purple is preparing for the Moultrie conflict in earnest, and is out with the determination to keep its slate unmarred. So far this season the Hurricane has shown that it has great possibilities and has won all its games by large and decisive scores, having piled up a grand total of 151 points to its opponents' 12.

The great work of the Purple backfield, mainly of Davis, Howard, Elliott and Captain McCully, deserves great praise. The Purple line has been weakened by injuries all season but at present it looks like the line will be able to muster its full strength in the next few games. Roy Collier, star guard of last year's campaign, is

Officials Uneasy.

What Is Happening In Grid Camps

GAINESVILLE, FLA., October 31.—(AP)—Alternate Captain Tom Owens, "Gator back," was on the hospital list here today as the result of a wrenched knee, received in scrimmage. The injury will not keep him out of Saturday's game with Sewanee, in the opinion of Coach Charles Bachman. Broken field runner, who was hurt in the game for the shock troops yesterday, Ben Clemmons had his first taste of scrimmage in nearly two weeks at center. The light team will practice today and a third squad tomorrow.

OXFORD, MISS., October 31.—(AP)—Coach Hazel is busy remedying both offensive and defensive faults discovered in his football line in their loss to Loyola at New Orleans last Saturday, to round out his "wrecking machine" for the Clemson combat. This contest is considered the hardest on the Red and Blue slate.

The Walker brothers are likely starters at the home-coming day. Smith, Rushing, Wilcox and Woodruff are in good shape. Morris and Boutwell, guard and center, respectively, are showing fine trim.

Joe Houston, a newly developed back of 150 pounds, who is demonstrating brilliant tackling and all-round consistency, may get into the line.

LEXINGTON, VA., October 31.—(AP)—Injuries are still playing havoc with the Washington and Lee football outfit. Several regulars are spending these afternoons on the sidelines watching a group of second-string men cavort on the field.

Sproul and Day were at the end, ordinarily held by Towill and Williams. Hostetter and Tillar occupied the tackle berths of Captain Fitzpatrick and Hawkins. Taylor was at one guard in place of Henry Green, and Rainer replaced White and Barnett, at fullback.

BLACKSBURG, VA., October 31.—(AP)—Andy Gustafsen, head coach at Virginia Polytechnic institute, is working his Gobbler football squad overtime this week looking toward the Virginia tide-water classic with Maryland at Norfolk next Saturday.

In a long scrimmage two freshmen teams furnished opposition for the regulars in one of the hardest scrimmages of the season. The Gobbler first-string men were given opportunities at both defensive and offensive play against the freshmen.

DURHAM, N. C., October 31.—(AP)—The Duke university Blue Devils snapped into excellent form yesterday in the scrimmage preparatory to meeting the Mercer Bears Saturday. Buie continued his stellar passing

Jackets Take Easy Practice For Saturday

Petrels Hopeful of Springing Real Surprise; Grey Devils Work for Game.

BY HERB CLARK.

The Yellow Jackets, with only two days left in which to prepare against the assaults of Oglethorpe's Petrel squad, which comes to Grant field Saturday, hoping to spring another upset similar to that of 1927 when the Techsters, looking ahead, forgot the ground at their feet, and were royally tripped by the Peachtree road aggregation, are taking things much as they come, and plan to take the Petrels in their stride.

The session Wednesday afternoon took the form of a light but long drill on everything from the fundamentals of the game to the most complex of the maneuvers in the Jackets' repertoire. Blocking and charging occupied the attention of the whole squad in the opening moments, after which the varsity went up on the big field while the Grey Devils traveled down behind the stands for their own practice.

The big squad had some work in open field tackling at the outset. Firpo Martin then sent one of his backfields and a pair of ends up to Alex to give him a slant at the Petrel pass attack. Various varsity secondaries took turns at stopping the tosses, and did good jobs of it.

A long signal drill wound up the varsity session. The Grey Devils, who trek to Monroe to combat the Aggies Friday afternoon, went through their own conception of a signal drill in preparation for their trip. The Aggies put up a stiff battle against the fresh squad, and are not expected to ease up for Firpo's team. The Devils will take a large and powerful lineup to Monroe, and the game should go to Tech handsly.

Pinehurst Net Play Advances

Pinehurst, N. C., October 31.—(AP) H. D. Vail, of Glencoe, L. I., advanced to the quarter-final in the fifth mid-south tennis tournament here today by defeating R. Walsh, of West Newton, Mass., 6-2, 6-3, in the third round. Combined with a fast and twirling service the winner displayed all-round ability with the racket.

An upset of the tournament was the defeat of R. S. Lovering, of Boston, by G. C. Frank, Duke university, North Carolina, flash. This surprise victory by the southern boy, who is a red-head with a dashing game, came in the third round. Lovering, in his second round match had taken into camp W. D. Gettel, of Raleigh, N. C., 6-1, 6-1.

Richard S. Tufts, of Melford, Mass., was eliminated in the third round by Robert Crossland, of Charlotte, N. C., the seeded number one player, 6-2, 6-2.

Nelson High Beats O'Keefe by 13-0 Score

Nelson high school's eleven bowled over the O'Keefe junior outfit of Atlanta here by a score of 13 to 0 in a hard fought game.

Nelson kept the Atlantans on the defensive throughout and headed by the offensive work of Harry Brown managed to push over a couple of scores. Brown made one of the touchdowns. Nelson will play Dallas, Ga., high school here Saturday afternoon.

GRID CAPTAINS

ROY WITT

Roy Witt stands out as one of the best all-around backs in Dixie. Last season many sports writers chose him as the southland's outstanding punter, while his forward passing, blocking and ball-toting ability also attracted much attention. Tennessee completed 40 out of 72 passes tossed in six conference games last year, and it was Roy who did practically all of the Vols' heaving.

This is Witt's third time to captain a football team, he having led the Baylor School of Chattanooga eleven in 1924 and the U. T. Fresh eleven in 1925. He is a senior.

PARRO WINNER IN GOOD RIDE AT EMPIRE CITY

New York, October 31.—(AP)—A magnificent ride by Frank Catrone brought a victory to the Canyon stable's Paro in the Fordham claiming stakes at Empire City today. Catrone landed his mount a nose ahead of Joe Marone III in a driving finish. Judge Bartlett was third. The race was worth $2,450 and the winner paid 18 to 5.

A long shot and an odds-on favorite divided the honors in the two features of the get-away day at Hawthorne.

The Au Revoir handicap went to My Dandy, who paid $3.54 in the mutuels, while the Aud Lang Syne handicap was won by Sea Scamp, who rewarded his backers at $4.32 for a $2 ticket. A crowd of about 8,000 saw the last day of racing of the year in the Chicago district.

My Dandy had an easy time in the first feature race, breaking in front and setting the pace all the way to a length. Blackwood was second and Rurik third.

Beating one of the best fields of the entire meeting, the Le Mar Stock farm's Misspet captured the Halloween purse at Latonia over the six-furlong distance. S. Peabody's Flat Iron came from far back to finish second. Energy took third. The race was run in the fast time of 1:10 2-5.

The third race at Latonia furnished something of a surprise when two long shots, Doris and My Hobby, finished first and second. Doris paid $52.70 straight and $16.90 to show in the mutuels, while My Hobby brought $16.14 for second place.

Unbeaten Teams Meet Crucial Tests in Saturday Games

Ohio State Has Edge on Tiger; N. Y. Favored

Georgetown, However, May Spring Surprise as Might Princeton.

BY WALTER TRUMBULL.
(Copyright, 1928, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.)
Those who attempt to pick the football winners for Saturday might as well use the system of drawing the names out of a hat. It's as good as any other.

Take, for example, Princeton and Ohio State. We know that Ohio has a center of great speed and gross tonnage, that it has Haskowski at tackle, and that it has both a Whippet and a steam roller in the back field. We know that Ohio beat Northwestern and Indiana by a larger margin than did Illinois, and held both of them scoreless.

Princeton in Tie.
We know that Princeton was held to a tie by Virginia and could not score a touchdown either against the Virginians or against Cornell. But we also know that Princeton is not one of the teams which has been injured and that the backs have been injured and below their peak, but we know that it always has been a Princeton habit to stress defense and bring the attack along slowly.

So, while on paper Ohio State should win from the Sons of Nassau, we refuse to guarantee any such outcome. Ohio has the edge going in, but who will have it coming out is what time alone will answer.

Other Close Games.

And perhaps you think it easy to guess the winner in such contests as the Stanford-Southern California, Cornell-Columbia, Maine-Colby, New York University-Georgetown, Minnesota-Northwestern, Penn State-Notre Dame, Pittsburgh-Syracuse, California-Oregon, Texas-Southern Methodist, Clemson-Mississippi, Temple-Schuyler, Texas Christian-Baylor, Wisconsin-Alabama, Bucknell-Villanova, Colgate-Wabash, Utah-Agass-Colorado Aggies, Louisiana State-Arkansas, and even the Illinois-Michigan game. If you can call all of these correctly, you should be telling fortunes for a living. Off hand and from 3,000 miles away, I should say that the Stanford-Southern California affair is largely a matter of guile against force. Warner's intricate system of attack calls for strength in the line and perfect timing and team work. If it gets rolling, Stanford is likely to shake at any moment. The eleven coached by Howard Jones strives to score Williams loose.

Presbyterian Girls Form Veteran Team

Avondale Presbyterian girls' basketball team promises to be a real contender for honors in the Cherokee basketball league of the girls' division of the Y-Church Athletic association, which opens the 1928 season on the night of November 8, as every member from last year's club has returned.

ATLANTA TEAM WORKING HARD FOR LOCAL FOE

With only two days left before one of the hardest games of the season, the Crimson Hurricane of Atlanta university went through one of the roughest scrimmages of the year. Saturday the Maroon Tiger of Morehouse college meets the Hurricane.

The varsity piled up a heavy score against the reserves, who were using Morehouse formation and plays. The reserves made only one first down, to the varsity's 18. Tackle Edwards, Blackburn, McPherson and Higgins, gaining almost at will. A deceptive passing attack was sprung by the varsity, resulting in two of the touchdowns of the afternoon.

Trade Season Is Under Way For Baseball

Giants Start Activity; Managers Face Ax; Many Big Deals in Offing.

BY BRIAN BELL.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
New York, October 31.—(AP)—Trading in the big league baseball market is under way. The Giants started a trading season that probably will prove very brisk before the major league clubs assemble five months hence in the south and west for training camp.

The real trading comes by custom when snow has covered the diamonds and outfielders in the big time stadium, but the Giants and the Phillies started the ball rolling with a deal when the frost is just on the pumpkin.

Others to Follow.
That many others will now seem a safe guess. Several teams are known to be dissatisfied with past performances of some of their highest priced players and the managers are prescribing a change of scenery.

Although the New York Yankees have won two world series in eight years, Manager Miller Huggins is believed to be spending his time between golf shots at St. Petersburg, Fla., in looking over railway time tables with a view to buying tickets for some of his athletes to cities other than New York.

The Yankees have several players sitting on the bench most of the time who could take their place in the regular lineup of other clubs in the American league. An example is big man of Charlotte, N. C., Paschal, can hit, run and throw, three essential assets for an outfielder, but he cannot crowd out Babe Ruth, Earle Combs or Bob Meusel.

Dugan Not Secure.
If the mite manager of the world champions can find some club needing an outfielder and blessed with a fair pitcher as excess baggage a deal might be made. The Yankee infield may see some changes before another season starts. Joe Dugan, who has been a regular at third base as long as he is believed to be any one secure, although he can remain a Yankee subject to emergency call. Only time will tell how good Tony Lazzeri's arm will be after a winter's rest and treatment. Dan Howley will trade if the wind is in the right direction, but he has no success in his last year's transactions his brother managers are apt to give him a wide berth. Walter Johnson will have a chance to match wits with his new brother master-minds for the benefit of Washington, and Stanley Harris certainly would like to do some juggling with the Tigers, over whom he has assumed command.

The trade winds are believed to be blowing over that part of St. Louis set aside for the Cardinals, but President Sam Breadon must first say who is to conduct the negotiations.

McKeech is Doubtful.
Bill McKeech is not yet re-elected for another year. At the same time he has not been defeated for the nomination.

The minors will go into action early in December when the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues holds its annual meeting at Toronto. From December 5 to December 7 the lobbies of the Kings Edward hotel will be jammed with managers and presidents of clubs in 30 or more minor leagues willing to talk business and trade for money, marbles or chalk.

The majors will be represented there also, but in the main the visiting managers from the American and National leagues will be on hand as observers. Hundreds of minor leagues will have their uniforms changed for them in these three busy days. If any deals are left over by the big leagues they can be taken care of when the majors meet in New York the next week.

Every indication points to a record volume of baseball business before any more serious playing is done.

Tech Is Favored In Football Race

in the annual Thanksgiving game, to be followed by the struggle with Georgia. This latter will, of course be rather titanic in its nature. It's a rocky road that lies ahead of Tech but the boys look like they'll get over the jumps. There's plenty of room to slip.

The Georgia Case.
Georgia presents a ticklish case. There are many "ifs" and "ands." Auburn, having seemingly discovered itself, may rise up and smite the Bulldogs. We don't see how that could happen, but this is football, not chess.

After Auburn, Georgia has Florida, to be played in the sand at Savannah. As we have said before, Florida is tough. Then comes L. S. U., Alabama and Tech. There's no more rest for the Bulldogs. If the Red and Black line ever pulls itself together and turns in better work then there'll be a red terror roaming the countryside. A strong line is all that Georgia's backs need.

Colonel McGugin's buch at Nashville—the Commodores of Vanderbilt—has Kentucky to deal with following the 34-to-0 outrage of Virginia last Saturday. Vandy will hurdle this game rather easily to run slap bang into Tech. And you know what that will mean. It will mean the sort of the battle to make Vandy wish that the terrible University of Tennessee bunch wasn't bobbing up, the next Saturday.

1928 act with Sewanee on Thanksgiving day, which will be a sort of anti-climax to the Tennessee brush. We don't think Vandy'll make the grade this year.

The more we look at it, the more it looks like Tech. This, of course, is nothing but gab. All three of the above-mentioned teams stand a great chance of getting knocked off. In fact all of them will except one. Whether that will be Tech, Georgia or Vandy we wish we knew. We think it'll be Tech, which isn't starting at all. Lots of other people think that.

Georgetti Refuses To Ride With McNamara

Chicago, October 31.—(AP)—Franco Georgetti, motor-paced champion bicycle rider of America, has refused to ride with Reggie McNamara, known as the iron man of the six-day bicycle riders, in Chicago's twentieth international six-day race, which starts in the coliseum November 10.

Georgetti may again team with Debevoise, with whom he won the last six-day race in Madison Square Garden.

Stribling and Dempsey.
THE heavyweight horizon is so filled with the haze of ballyhoo just at present that a clear look at the situation is well nigh impossible but it doesn't take any great amount of star-gazing to vision a couple of great showmen in the ring within a year's time.

Speaking of William Lawrence Stribling, Jr., and William Harrison Dempsey. Such a vision will give the jesters much diversion in the form of loud and long raspberries. You will find many who believe such a thing can never come to pass and you will find others who believe and still give the raspberry.

But the fact remains that matters now point to such a conclusion. William Harrison Dempsey may fight again. He is quoted as saying as much by several writers and in view of the knockout he just sustained in his thespian battle the reports ring true. When the aging Mauler finds he is not an actor it is entirely reasonable to suppose that he will return to the old love that skyrocketed him from cross ties to private cars.

He is still the greatest drawing card of the outfit. Probably no other boxer ever lived who could be twice defeated and still draw the gate Jack Dempsey will draw any time he fights.

Young Stribling is on the high road to a reputation as a knockout artist. He has more knockouts to his credit now than any other fighter. Some say, "Those were setups." Name the fighter who booked all his knockouts with the top-notchers. There ain't no such animal. Go through the record of William Harrison Dempsey, for instance, and find out how many names you recognize in the group. Were they setups? Perhaps. The Mauler took them as they came. Name the man who has challenged Stribling and failed to get a fight with the Georgia boy in the past two years.

This is no brief for William Lawrence. He needs no brief other than the records that show in black and white what he has done in these past two years when he was going from the boxer stage to the fighter class. They say the boys that met Stribling were all setups. They say Big Sid Terris was a setup and frankly he was but Big Sid Terris had 14 straight knockouts to his credit before he met Stribling. He finished such fighters as Big Ben Pounds, K. O. Dugan and a lot of others before he met the Macon boy.

Strib will make almost any of them look bad right now. He has his sights set high. He is aiming at the heavyweight crown and he doesn't intend to miss. There is absolutely no question about the fact that William Lawrence Stribling presented a far different spectacle from the old William Lawrence who stood off and outpointed all of them no matter how good.

And there lies the vision of that Dempsey-Stribling match. Rickard has the Georgia boy in for three fights. Strib will try to end them just as he did the Squires fight, by a knockout. If he does, the public will begin to believe that he has a punch in his two hands. They will see a battle of punchers. Much depends on the showing of Stribling in these three fights for Rickard. If he shows well you may look for a fight between the Manassa Mauler and Stribling, take it or leave it.

Blackhawks Searching For Ice To Work On

Chicago, October 31.—(AP)—The Chicago Blackhawks moved south to St. Louis today in search of ice on which to complete their training for the coming hockey season.

The Blackhawks have been undergoing a general conditioning course for the past 10 days. The move to St. Louis for the remainder of the training period was necessary because of the lack of permanent ice in Chicago.

Captain Dick Irvin was included in the squad as the club's physician pronounced the Hawks' fleet wingman entirely recovered from a fractured skull received last year. There was some question whether the veteran star would be able to play again.

All of the squad has reported but Johnny Gottselig, who was held up at the Canadian border by immigration officials. The squad of 16 will be cut to 12 in a few weeks.

In 25th Season.

The Interdenominational Sunday School Bowling League, of Baltimore, is now on its twenty-fifth season.

Tide To Face Badger Club On Saturday

Wisconsin Will Play First Intersectional Game With Alabama.

ORLO L. ROBERTSON.
Chicago, October 31.—(AP)—The Crimson Tide, that globe trotting eleven from Alabama, will receive its first taste of western conference football Saturday when Wisconsin and Alabama clash at Madison in one of three invasions of Big Ten circles by non-conference teams.

The game will be Wisconsin's first intersectional game since 1912, when the then championship Badgers routed Arkansas, 64 to 7.

The Princeton Tiger will stalk into the fair of Ohio State and the Pennsylvania Quakers will come west to meet the down-trodden Chicago Maroons.

Neither Princeton nor Ohio State has been defeated this season. Ohio has shown noticeable improvement in every struggle, and the team came out of the Indiana fray in excellent physical shape except for Lee Raskowski, veteran tackle, whose ankle was injured.

Barring other injuries he probably will be the only regular not starting Saturday.

Despite four defeats optimism reigns at Michigan, where the Wolverines are preparing for Illinois, so far unbeaten. Fielding Yost appeared on the field yesterday and shouted his famous "Hurry up" as Tad White

Walt French Believed Through With Game

Chicago, October 31.—(AP)—Walter French, for six years an outfielder for the Philadelphia Athletics, may have played his last major league baseball game.

French has entered business in Chicago and has asked Connie Mack to put him on the voluntarily retired list.

man worked to get more punch into the backs.

A search for Illinois' missing punch, apparent in the Northwestern game last week, has been made by Coach Zuppke this week. The Illini have been accumulating great amounts of yardage, although counting comparatively few touchdowns.

A. A. Stagg's thirty-seventh Chicago football team may be down but it is never out. The "old man" is preparing for the Pennsylvania Quakers as if his Maroons were on top of the conference instead of at the bottom of the percentage ladder. The hospital squad has been reduced to four men and two of these, Van Nise and Leyers, are expected to be in shape for action Saturday.

Northwestern will introduce two distinct field units Saturday in its attempt to break through Minnesota's powerful line at Dyer stadium. Coach Hanley intends to start one combination of regular backs, then relieve them and give another set of ersatz regulars a change. Bill Griffin, 155-pound sophomore whose work against Illinois was worthy of mention, probably will get a selection on the regular quartet.

"Dad" Spears is trying to find a suitable substitute for Bronko Nagurski, his crippled fullback. It is doubtful if Minnesota's giant will be able to play, and Coach Spears will then probably rely upon Farmer, Westphal or Arende.

Chattanooga Gets Player Under Draft

Lookouts Only Southern Association Team To Win Claims.

Auburn, N. Y., October 31.—(AP)—Eighteen minor league players will advance a step by the draft route this year, according to the announcement made here today by J. H. Paprell, secretary of the national association of professional baseball leagues. Seven more selections were disallowed for various reasons. Ray Treva, of the Chattanooga, Ga., club had the most bids for his services with Chattanooga, Mobile and Shreveport asking for him. He was awarded to Chattanooga.

The selections follow:
By Wichita Falls, Texas, from Scranton, Pa., Fred Stately; from Jacksonville, Fla., Edwin Allie; from Greenville, S. C., George Spies; from Joplin, Mo., Jack Crouch.

By Waco, Texas, from Corsicana, Texas, Anthony Pietruski; from Chambersburg, Pa., Tom Blake.

By Pittsburgh, Mass., from Dayton, Ohio, Elmer O'Shaughnessy.

By Shreveport, La., from Waterloo, Iowa, Jim Grant.

By Chattanooga, Tenn., from Chattanooga, Ga., Ray Treva.

By Columbia, S. C., from Cumberland, Md., Frank Packard; from Goldsboro, N. C., R. Carver.

By Dayton, Ohio, from Springfield, Ill., Jim Grant.

Ohio State Has Edge on Tigers

to get him past the line of scrimmage with an interference or two in front of him to knock down the secondary defense. This should be an even battle.

If there is a show, the Cornells lie with Stanford.

N. Y. U.-Georgetown.

New York university and Georgetown should play one of the greatest games of the day. Georgetown should try New York's defense to the uttermost, but I think New York should win, just as I believe that Cornell has a little better chance than Columbia.

Maine looks a mite stronger than Colby. Notre Dame should shade Penn State; Minnesota should squeeze past Northwestern; Clemson should beat Mississippi; Texas Christian should beat Baylor; Southern Methodist should be a bit stronger than Texas; the Utah Aggies have the edge on the Colorado Aggies; Louisiana State should beat Arkansas; and Michigan figures to lose to Illinois.

It wouldn't be surprising to see the Wolverines give Zuppke's Illini a walk-off of a battle.

California-Oregon.

California is a bit more highly regarded than Oregon, but Oregon has a chance. Syracuse should win from Pittsburgh, but this is another case where no guarantee goes with any selection. Wisconsin should win from Alabama, but will it? I would not bet on Bucknell against Villanova, or Colgate against Wakefield. Temple was a tough opponent in a basketball, but Temple hasn't either just a hard-fought been scored upon this season, and you must stick with such an eleven until it falls should win from Dartmouth and it looks as if the Army, Navy, Harvard, Georgia, Wesleyan, Boston college, Brown, and Princeton, Florida, Tennessee, and Michigan, Virginia and Tufts should all win their games without too much difficulty.

Pennsylvania outranks Chicago, but that game is played on the home ground of the Maroons and it is a sure thing that Amos Alonzo Stagg will have saved a little something extra for Penn. Still, Young's young men should conquer.

Yale should win from Brown, but plenty of excitement. The chances favor Holy Cross. New Mexico should trim Arizona; Nebraska looks the winner against Kansas; Missouri should beat Drake; and Duquesne appears too powerful for Wyoming.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

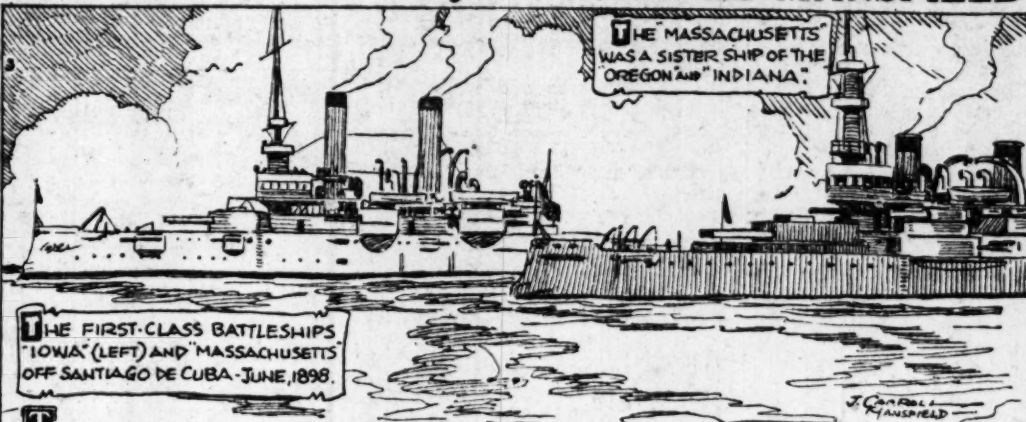

ON THE FIRST OF JUNE, 1898, ACTING ADMIRAL SAMPSON ARRIVED OFF SANTIAGO DE CUBA AND TOOK COMMAND OF THE UNITED STATES FLEET, WHICH HAD BLOCKADED THE SPANISH SQUADRON OF ADMIRAL CERVERA IN THE HARBOR.

SAMPSON POSTED HIS SHIPS CLOSE INSHORE SO THAT THE ENEMY COULD NOT SLIP OUT UNOBSERVED. BY NIGHT THE BEAMS OF POWERFUL SEARCHLIGHTS WERE TRAINED ON THE NARROW ENTRANCE, AND NO MOVEMENT ESCAPED THE WATCHFUL EYES OF THE LOOKOUTS ON THE FLEET.

The Story of Our War With Spain. Sampson at Santiago.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD
